

WELCOME TO OUR LESSON

Poem

*It's Saturday and there's no school
Saturdays are really cool
I can relax and meet my friends
I hope today never ends.*

*It's a perfect day, so I can't lose
I can do whatever I choose
I look good and feel fine
And the whole of the day is mine*

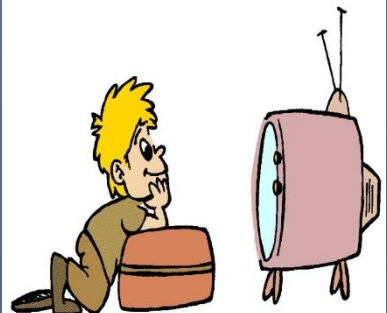

Weekend

Evening

Morning

Afternoon

Weekend's activities

have a rest go to the cinema get up early go to school get up late do homework have lessons go for a walk do shopping go to the sports club.

The key:

Have a rest

Go to the cinema

Get up late

Go for a walk

Do shopping

Put the mark

0 mistake – 5

1 mistake – 4

2 mistakes – 3

3 mistakes and more - 2

Remember

- Set off – meet

- Put up a tent

- Tie knots

- Build fire

- Campfire

“I love Saturday”

Match Ann's activities with the part of the day.

morning	Tie knots Go climbing Cook the dinner
afternoon	Put on a special uniform Play football evening	Have a big breakfast Set off with a friend Go to sleep Tell stories

Link the sentences in chronological order, using: and, then, after that, when, before.

- ▣ 1. Ann has a big breakfast. She puts on her special uniform.
- ▣ 2. She sets off with her friend. They meet up with the Scout leader.
- ▣ 3. They arrive at the forest. They put up the tent.
- ▣ 4. In the afternoon they play football. They go climbing.
- ▣ 5. They tell stories. They go to sleep.

Let's do exercise

Our perfect day

- I group – perfect morning
- II group – perfect afternoon
- III group – perfect evening

Today is a perfect day
to start
living your dreams

Home task:

Write a story “My perfect day” and
send it to my email:
nadpenzova80@mail.ru

Thank you for the lesson!

Cinquain

- A cinquain is a 5-line poem that describes a noun.
- 1-a noun
- 2-two adjectives describing the noun
- 3-three verbs or action verbs (ending in -ing)
- 4-a phrase or sentence about the noun (4 words)
- 5-one word synonym for the noun

Cinquain

Sunday

exciting, fantastic

Sleeping, meeting, going

The last day of the week

Weekend