

THE BEST ITEMS IN MY HOMETOWN

---

The best items in my hometown

Red Square is the most famous city square in Moscow, Russia. The square separates the Kremlin, the former royal citadel and currently the official residence of the President of Russia. The Red Square is often considered the central square of Moscow and of all Russia.

The best items in my hometown

The Moscow Kremlin is a big red castle in the center of Moscow. It is usually simply called the Kremlin. It is where most of the Russian government works. It is on the left bank of the Moskva River and southwest of Red Square.

The best items in my hometown

The Moscow Metro is a metro system which reaches nearly every part of the city of Moscow in Russia. It is one of the most heavily used metro systems in the world. It is also famous for its stations, which are heavily decorated with paintings.

The best items in my hometown

The Moscow Zoo is a zoo in Moscow. It is one of the ten largest zoos in the world. It covers 53 acres / 21 hectares (in 2013). The zoo holds over 6,000 individual animals, of 927 species (in 2013). The zoo opened in 1864. The most recent exhibits include a sea aquarium, an aviary, a sea lion exhibit, and children's attractions.

The best items in my hometown

Moscow Pavilion it is a famous pavilion that stood in the Expo 67 world exhibition and turned to All-Russia Exhibition Centre in Moscow, Russia a year later. The pavilion was called Pavilion 70 and later Moscow Pavilion.

The best items in my hometown

M.V. Lomonosov Moscow State University is the largest and oldest university in Russia. It was made in 1755 and is in Moscow. It was made by Ivan Shuvalov and Mikhail Lomonosov. It is named after Lomonosov.

