

TWIN-TOWN RELATIONS

TWIN-TOWN

Soligorsk has got 15 twin-towns or partner-towns

This is a list of places having standing links to our native town:

- Agarak (Armenia)
- La Louviere (Belgium)
- Aleksin (Russia)
- Marijampole (Lithuania)
- Holbeck (Denmark)
- Berezan (Ukraine)
- Tarashcha (Ukraine)
- Ceadir-Lunga (Moldova)
- Chernyahovsk (Russia)
- Lazarevsky City District (Sochi, Russia)
- Voskresensk (Russia)

Agarak (Armenia)

It's the centre of non-ferrous metallurgy, the region which is historically known for its copper and lead mines

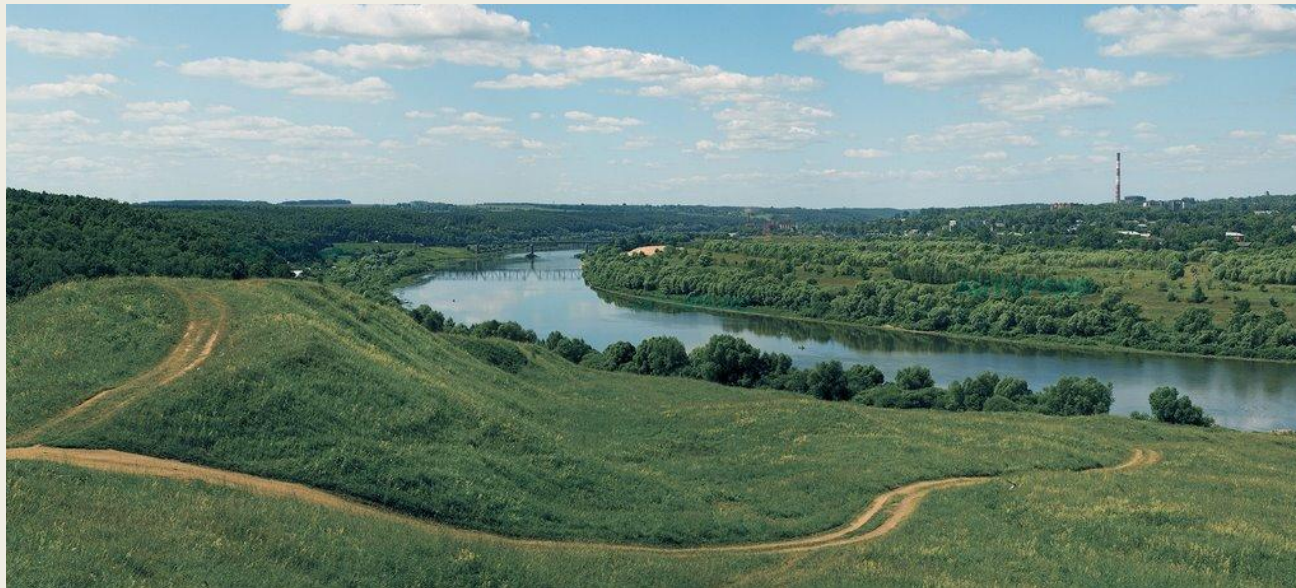

La Louviere (Belgium)

The great number of diesel locomotives using on Belgium railway roads, are produced at La Louviere plant

Aleksin (Russia)

The town is famous for its chemical plant and picturesque nature

Marijampole (Lithuania)

It is a centre of light enterprises, construction, transport and trade. It has also become home to one of the largest second hand car markets in Europe.

Holbeck (Denmark)

Holbek is a commercial and industrial centre for the surrounding area

Voskresensk (Russia)

Nowadays Voskresensk has an extensive social, engineering and transport infrastructures. Chemical and light industries, production of building materials are the most important ones.

Xianning (China)

It's known by the three names
“ City of Osmanthus”, “ City of Nan
Bamboo” and “ City of Tea”.

Kohtla-Jarve (Estonia)

It's famous for its chemical industry. It is both a processor of oil shales and a large producer of various petroleum products.

Some years ago the students of our school went to Kohtla-Jarve. They took part in the international youth conference “ Climate Change, Cultural Heritage and Energy Efficient Monuments”.

Thank you for attention!

