

History of the Arkhangelsk Regional Lomonosov Drama Theatre

It is one of the oldest drama theatres in the North.

St. Trinity Cathedral

193
0

The theatre was founded in 1932.
The contemporary building was built on the foundations of the ruined in 1929 St. Trinity Cathedral.

193

0

1937

194

0

Till 1961 it was called the Arkhangelsk Big Drama Theatre.

195

0

193

0

before

after

The façade of the building, the auditorium, the stage and the wings were reconstructed in the 1960s. The façade was made of glass and concrete.

200
3

200
9

At the beginning of the 2000s the building of the theatre was closed for reconstruction again.

It lasted for many years because of financial problems. For that period the troupe gave performances on the Small stage.

By the summer of 2009 the theatre was completely re-equipped and now it is a modern stage complex, which can take actors and actresses of any level and genre.