The sonnet to Dark Lady

My mistress eyes are nothing like the sun
Coral is far more red than her lips red
If snow be white, why then her breasts are dun
If hairs be wires, black wires grow on her head
I have seen roses damask'd, red and white
But no such roses see I in her cheeks
And in some perfume is there more delight
Than in the breath that from my mistress reeks
I love to hear her speak,-yet well I know
That music hath a far more pleasing sound;
I grant I never saw a goddess go,-
My mistress when she walks, treads on the ground

And yet, by heaven, I think my love as rare
As any she belied with false compare
