GOOD MANNERS

Focus on phonetics

[i:] – be, sweet, street, please

[æ] – thanks, at, and , have

[əu] – polite, home

[e] - friends, remember

[ɔ:] - always

Always be polite and sweet
At your home, in the street.
Remember please, goodbye and thanks,
And you will have a lot of friends.

The dialog for the first group:

Mother: Mike, breakfast is ready.

Mike: Well, Mother, I am here.

Mother: What do you want to eat?

Mike: I want a cup of tea and some cheese.

Mother: Do you want some milk?

Mike: Yes, please.

Mother: All right! Sit down and eat.

Mike: Thank you, Mother.

The dialog for the second group:

Mother: Dinner is ready.

Father: Good appetite.

Daughter: Would you like a cup of tea?

Son: Just a little, please.

Father: The soup is very delicious.

Son: I like it very much.

Daughter: Will you pass me the salt?

Mother: OK.

The dialog for the third group:

Jane: Thanks, Mother, it was lovely!

Father: Yes, the dinner was really delicious today! I really enjoyed it!

Mother: Would you like some salad, Jim?

Jim: Oh, thanks, mom. I'm already full. But it was really very nice.

Mother: What did you like most?

Jim: The salad. It was great. Thank you.

Mother: You are welcome!
