

Evgeni Plushenko

-
- A wooden post stands in the foreground, heavily laden with numerous skis of various brands and colors, including 'Uniti', 'erbacher', 'TOMC', and 'RACING'. The skis are arranged in a dense, overlapping fashion. In the background, there are several wooden buildings with red roofs, typical of a ski resort. The ground is covered in snow, and the sky is blue with some clouds. The overall scene is a winter sports setting.
- Was born November third, 1982 in city Solar, Khabarovsk territory. Crossing to Volgograd took place in four-year-old age. There Evgenie has started to be engaged in figure skating. To have an opportunity to train, has moved to St-Petersburg. There has continued to perfect skill of figure skating at sports school.

- After the termination of a comprehensive school has entered the university physical training which has ended in 2005. First greater sports victory Plushenko took place in a season of 1996-1997. Then it became the first in the world championship among юниоров. Already in a following season has taken the third place in the world championship, and also the championship of Russia, the second - in the championship of the Europe.

-
- A photograph of figure skater Evgenie Plyushchenko. He is smiling and looking slightly to the right. He has light brown hair with bangs. He is wearing a black turtleneck under a dark, sequined jacket. A blue ribbon with a white logo is draped around his neck, holding a silver medal. He is holding a bouquet of yellow and green flowers in his left hand. The background is blurred, showing a crowd of spectators.
- For the first time in the biography Evgenie Plyushchenko became the world champion in 2001. The figure skater won five times in the championship of the Europe. Possesses set of awards, ranks, premiums.