The video–letter of the zoo’s director

Dear friends, boys and girls.

Nice to meet you. I’m the director of Panington Zoo, one of the oldest and largest park. We have more than hundred kinds of wild animals from all over the world. About 70 endangered animals live at the Zoo now. We save the living things and take care of them. Our Chilean flamingos stretch their beautiful wings. The pair of lions is very dangerous. Their names are Midas and Jamna. Welcome to Panington Zoo. It’s worth visiting.

Correct sentences

- We have got a letter from the director of London Zoo.
- They have more than two hundred kinds of wild animals.
- Their flamingoes catch the fish.
- The pair of lions isn't dangerous.

The questions of the zoo's director

- Have you ever been to the zoo?
- What species of animals are there in your country?
- What do you think is better for animals: to live in zoos or in the wild?
- Have you got a pet? How do you take care of it?

London Zoo

London Zoo was opened in 1827 by the Zoological Society of London. Today there are more than 8 000 animals in the zoo. Some are very rare. Many of the animals were born in London Zoo or in other zoos from all over the world.

The elephants have the biggest appetite in the zoo. An elephant's daily diet consists of grass, cabbages, carrots, potatoes, salt, vitamins and minerals.

Every day you can watch different animals, for example: snakes, lions, flamingos, around London Zoo there are many exhibits.

In summer you can have a ride on a pony or camel.
