

AQUITAINE – THE FORTUNE AND THE WILL

Contents

- Introduction
- Childhood
- Queen of France
- Queen of England
- The queen's word
- Conclusion

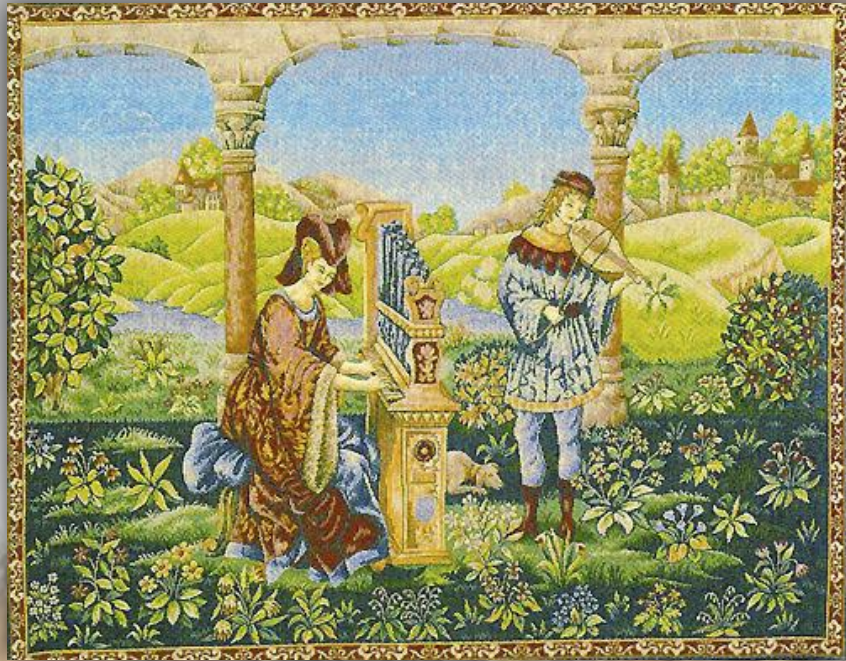

Introduction

Eleanor of Aquitaine –
the Queen of two countries
– England and France.

Childhood

TROUBADOURS – Provençal poets-singers XI-XIII centuries. They made songs and poems about courtly love of knights and pleasures of life. The word "troubadour" came from Provençal "trobar" - to find, compose verses.

The lands Eleanor got after her father's death.

Queen of France

Married
12
July
1137

King of France
Louis VII
(1120
1180)

Eleanor,
Duchess of Aquitaine
(1122 – 1204)

In 1144 The French and
Germans started
The Second

Marie Capet (1145
– 1198)

Alix of France
(1151 – 1167)

Queen of England

Married
18
May 1152

King of England
Henry II
(1133 – 1189)

Eleanor,
Duchess of Aquitaine
(1122 – 1204)

King of England
Henry II
(1133 – 1189)

Eleanor, Duchess of Aquitaine
(1122 – 1204)

Matilda, Duchess of Saxony
(1156 – 1189)

Henry the Young
King
(1155 – 1183)

Richard I the Lionheart
(1157 – 1199)

John of England
(1167 – 1216)

Joan, Queen of Sicily
(1165 – 1199)

William IX (1153 – 1156)

Eleanor, Queen of Castile
(1162 – 1214)

Geoffrey II, Duke of Brittany
(1158 – 1186)

The legend says that Eleanor ordered to give Rosamond some poison.

King's mistress Rosamond was very young and beautiful.

The queen's

King of England
Richard I
(1157 – 1199)

Conclusion

House of Plantagenet

