- “I can read”.
- In Great Britain most people celebrate their birthdays on the day of the month they were born. Birthdays are celebrated with family and friends. People send invitations for the party. A birthday cake with candles is served. We have a table full of food, crisps, sandwiches, chocolates biscuits, ice cream and small sausages. We eat grapes, bananas and drink Coke and juice.
- We decorate the house with balloons and play party games with my friends.

It is traditional to bring or send birthday cards and gifts to the birthday person. Many people send flowers. Other presents can be clothing, books, toys or CDs. Parties for children are usually celebrated at home. At children`s parties, children wear birthday hats and get souvenirs from the birthday child.
