British Slang

And text language

Text Language

British text language is the term to describe English abbreviations and slang used in texting and instant messaging.

It emerged in order to write texts quicker and more easily.

In fact it has caused concern among some people because it has been a factor in reduced literacy levels.

The British love their slang. It gives them a feeling of patriotism and fellowship

Knowledge of British slang is both useful and helpful.

If you use slang terms, British people will find it charming and amusing.

Even if you don't use it, it helps to know what the words mean as people use it in everyday conversation.

Cockney Rhyming Slang is perhaps the most famous of English dialects.

The basis of this slang is, as the name suggests, that it rhymes.

Here is an example:

"dog" is 'the slang' short version for "dog and bone" (the full phrase), and it means the phone (because "bone" rhymes with "phone").

Your Task:

Match the slang, the full phrase and the meaning together

Slang	Full Phrase	Meaning
Apples	Plates of Meat	Wife
Trouble	Apples and Pairs	Feet
Bread	Rosie Lee	Tea
Plates	Bread and Honey	Stairs
Rosie	Trouble and Strife	Money
