

Celtic art

Celtic art is the art associated with the Celts who spoke the Celtic languages in Western and Central Europe from pre-history through to the modern period

By Ksenia Filichkina from 10A

Celts

- The Celts were in good health and stamina body. Celts were similar to the current northern Europeans have the luxury of gold hair, often painted them red tones. The Celts were among the first to shave off

very long whiskers
were bright,

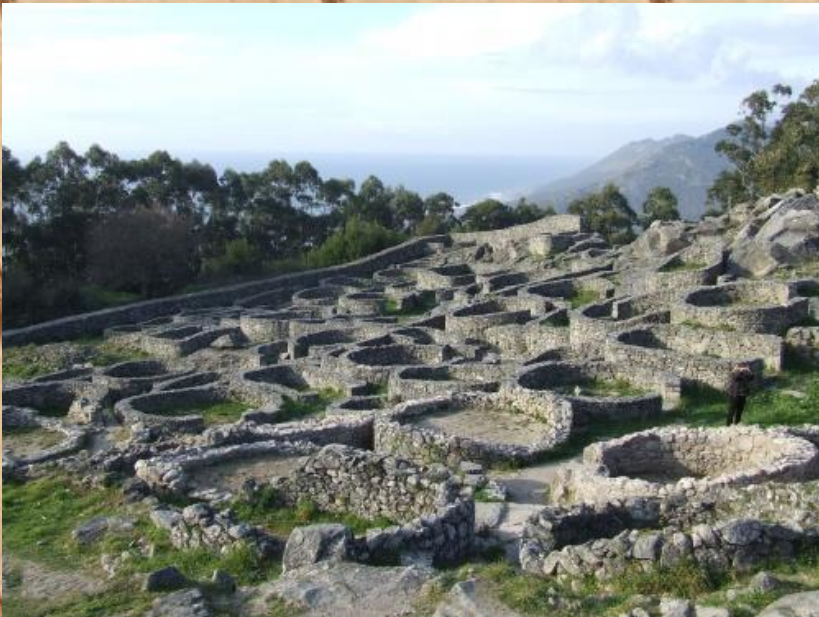

Athletic had a
equally by both men and had strength.

The settlements of the Celts

- The Celts built a fortified settlement with stone buildings surrounded by massive walls. They have become a walled city and handicraft centers. It was the development of agriculture and fisheries. Skillfully treated metal.

Celtic art

n
es

