$$
\begin{gathered}
\text { Confusing } \\
\text { words } \\
\text { part II }
\end{gathered}
$$

as ## like

As refers to something or someone's appearance or function.

for examole Before I became a teacher I worked as a waiter.

Like has the meaning 'similar to' and is used when comparing things.

-or examole l've been working like a dog.

Are the sentences TRUE or FALSE.

1. She is running as a jaguar.
2. Mary is a nurse as her mother was.
3. I don't like rice like they cook in Spain.
4. Why have you bought a new skirt as mine?
5. He behaves as a baby.
6. My sister is not at all like me.
7. She sings like an angel.
8. I use one of the bedrooms like an office.

beside

besides

Beside is a preposition of place that means at the side of or next to.

The house was beside the Thames.

Besides is an adverb or preposition. It means in addition to or also.

for example Besides

water, we carried some fruit.

Complete the sentences.

1. Do you play any other sports $\qquad$ football and tennis?
2. Our company was built right $\qquad$ a lake.
3. Come and sit here __________ me, Jack.
4. There were a lot of people at the party us.
5. People choose jobs for other reasons $\qquad$ money.
6. I was standing right $\qquad$ her all the time.
7. Italy, I would like to visit France and Spain.

borrow

lend

Borrowing is taking for a time. You borrow something from somebody.
for example Can I borrow your book?

Lending is giving for a time. You lend something to somebody.

For example Ifyou need a jacket I can lend one to you.

Are the sentences TRUE or FALSE.

1. I borrowed my money to Mike, and I never saw it back.
2. If you need a jacket I can borrow one to you.
3. "Before you borrow money from a friend, decide which you need more."- Gene Brown.
4. Can I borrow your book?
5. He used to lend money and never pay it back.
6. Can you lend me $£ 10$ until tomorrow?
7. I lent his bike.
