

Saint Patrick

- Saint Patrick was an Irish bishop. He became very famous for miracles he made.

17 of March

□ On March of 17 British and American people have a day off and a great celebration. The most important tradition of the celebration is wearing clothes in green colour. The green colour is the national colour of Ireland. The main symbol of celebrations is a shamrock. A shamrock is a plant with three round leaves and each stem. It is the national emblem of Ireland.

Celebration

- There are enjoyable parades in the streets. Women give flowers to men and men give flowers to women wishing them happiness. Everybody wears green clothes with clovers, pipes and horseshoes in their pockets.

Symbols :

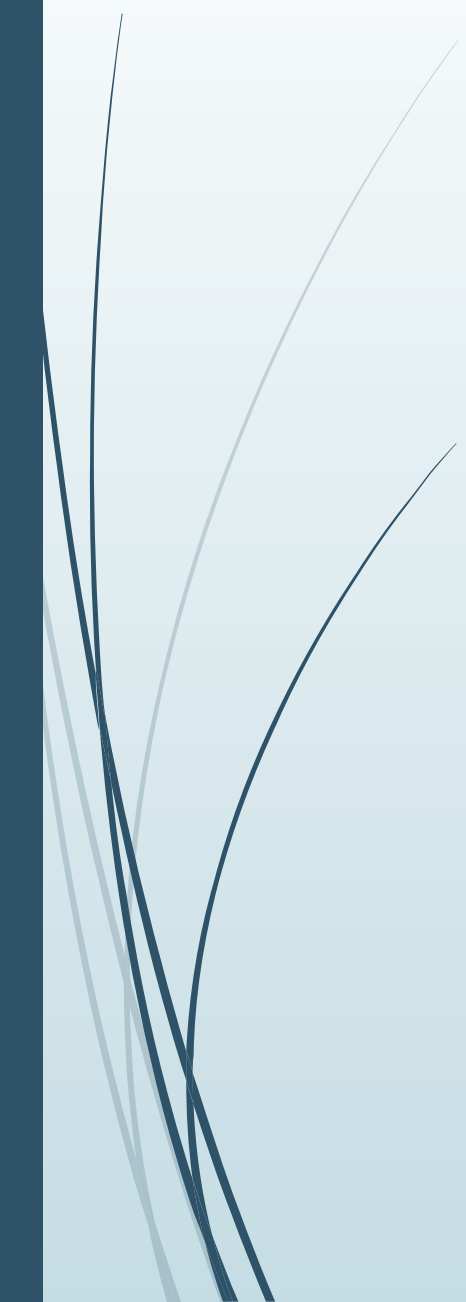

- * shamrock,
- * horseshous,
- * green colour.

In the parades:

- People in the parades throuws vegetables sun as :
 - *potatoes
 - *cabbage
 - *carrots
 - *onions
 - *so on...

Cook stew

- Those who catch them bring them to their houses and prepare their meal colled stew.
- They eat it and drink green beer and whisky. On that day everything must be green like Ireland.

□ By