My living room

In the living room, I always watch TV. It is the only place I can spend my time with my family. Sometimes, I talk my mom and dad watching TV. My holidays are spent in the living room by lying on the sofa. But I never do my homework there. I can't concentrate well. Sounds of TV, noises from the road, my family's conversation disturb my studying. That's why living room is not in my list where I like to study in my house.

My kitchen

There are many interesting ,cute and even unusual things in our kitchen,so it is difficult to describe it in two words.First of all,it must be mentioned that our kitchen is quite big,light and ample,but very cozy.In the center of my favourite room,there is a round vintage wooden table.Opposite the door ,one can see a large window with lovely light-blue curtains.On the window sill there are pots with beautiful plants – growing plants is my mother is hobby,

My room is small, but it is very cozy and bright. My room belongs only to me and no one shares it with me. In addition, my room is the most distant from the other rooms in my house and no one can eavesdrop on me. There is a bed, bookshelves and a writing desk with a computer on it. My room is not just a place where I can relax, it is also a place where I can work. There are many large and exotic plants. It creates a special atmosphere here.

I want to tell you about my bathroom. It is not big, but it is clean and light. There is a bath in it and there is a washing machine. We have a carpet there, a basket for waste and a mirror above the washbasin. I like bathroom. That's all I wanted to say

I like wearing different clothes. I have got a lot of jeans. Of course, I have got a lot of skirts too. In the winter I enjoy wearing loose and thick woolen sweaters. My favourite one is light blue with white snowflakes

Conclusion

- The house is great importance to each of us . A home for many is a place where you can hide from problems . This is the place where we aspire , even after spending a lot of time away from it. I miss my sweet home.
