

The image features two flags waving against a clear blue sky. The top flag is the European Union flag, characterized by a blue field with twelve yellow stars arranged in a circle. Below it is the Ukrainian national flag, consisting of two horizontal stripes of yellow and blue. The text 'EUROMAIDA' is written in large, bold, yellow capital letters across the top of the EU flag, and a large yellow capital letter 'N' is positioned below it, centered over the transition between the two flags.

EUROMAIDA N

Ukraine protests

Opposition deputies throw pieces of paper towards Ukraine's Prime Minister Mykola Azarov and members of his government as he gestures during a session of parliament in Kiev on Nov. 22.

Ukraine protests

Opposition protesters and riot police fight in front of the Ukrainian Cabinet of Ministers in Kiev, on Nov. 24.

Ukraine protests

A protester clashes with riot police during a rally supporting EU integration in front of the Ukrainian cabinet of ministers building in Kiev on Nov. 25.

Ukraine protests

A demonstrator holds a torn portrait of Ukrainian President Viktor Yanukovich on November 29.

Ukraine protests

Injured protesters receive medical help in an ambulance after riot police broke up a rally on November 30.

Ukraine protests

Ukrainian riot police officers detain a protester on November 30.

Ukraine protests

Dozens of protesters were wounded in a clash with police in Kiev on November 30.

Ukraine protests

Protesters break the door of the Kiev City State Administration building during a rally held by supporters of EU integration in Kiev, on Dec. 1.

Ukraine protests

Demonstrators gather in downtown Kiev on December 1.

Ukraine protests

Protesters try to break through police lines near the presidential administration building during a rally held by supporters of EU integration in Kiev, on Dec. 1.

Ukraine protests

Police stand guard outside the parliament in Kiev on December 3.

Ukraine protests

Anti-government protesters occupy the floor of City Hall on Dec. 4, in Kiev, Ukraine.

Ukraine protests

A protester faces riot police on Dec. 3, as thousands rallied outside the Ukrainian parliament in Kiev.

Ukraine protests

People supporting EU integration attend a rally at Independence Square in Kiev on Dec. 4.

Ukraine protests

Ukraine's prime minister warned protesters blockading government buildings that anybody guilty of violating the constitution and laws would face punishment. The sign in white reads: "Requirement Number 1: Resignation of Yanukovich"

Ukraine protests

Thousands of people have been protesting against the government since a decision by Ukrainian president Viktor Yanukovich to suspend a trade and partnership agreement with the European Union in favor of incentives from Russia.

Ukraine protests

Anti-government protesters camp in Independence Square early in the morning on December 8.

Ukraine protests

A pro-EU activist offers flowers to police officers at the presidential office in Kiev, on December 8.

Ukraine protests

Demonstrators gather in Independence Square during a mass rally on December 8.

Ukraine protests

A large rally is held in Kiev's Independence Square on December 8.

Thank you for your attention!

Kuchmynda Oleksiy 11-A

