The Summer Garden.

The Summer Garden is the oldest park in St. Petersburg. The work of laying out the Summer Garden began in 1704. Peter 1 ordered saplings of trees and flowers from everywhere for his « paradis». He dreamed of creating a garden more beautiful than at Versailles.

The Summer Palace of Peter 1.

The palace was designed by the architect Domenico Tresini in 1710 – 1714. It is a small two – storeyed palace. The palace was built for Peter 1 and his family.

Today the Summer garden one of favourite places of tourists and townsmen. The beauty of avenues involves artists, inspires composers and poets of our time.
