

Районная конференция «Достижения молодых» (секция английского языка)

Презентация

ученицы 8-в-класса

МКОУ СОШ №3 с. Камень-Рыболов Ханкайского района Приморского края

Христенко Александры

защита реферата
на тему:

Exploring the Poem
Grace Nichols
“Hurricane Hits England”

Exploring the Poem

Grace Nichols

“Hurricane Hits England”

Biography

Nichols was born in Georgetown, Guyana in 1950, the fifth of seven children.

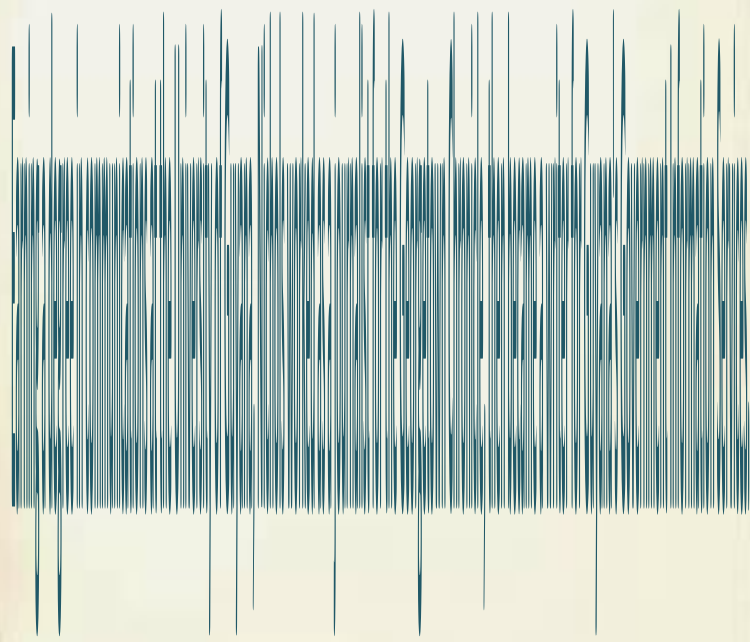

[A large, dense, illegible block of text, possibly representing a corrupted scan or a very faint image.]

Gerald Swisher

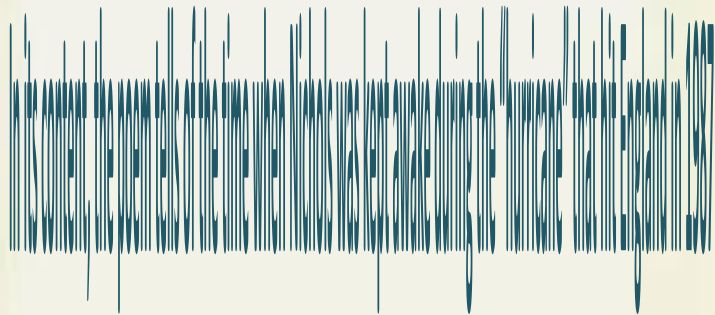

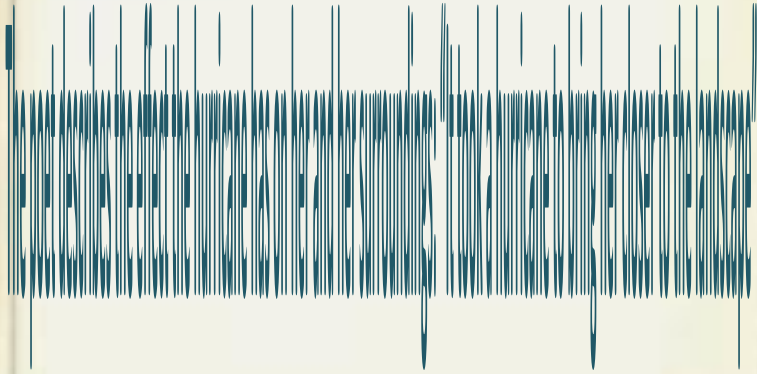

She began writing poetry and short fiction while working as a journalist.

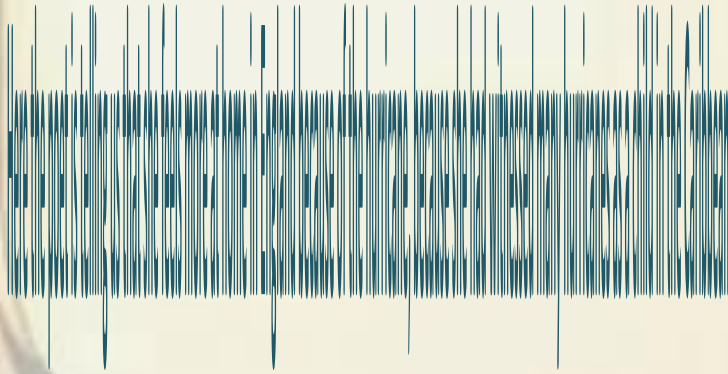

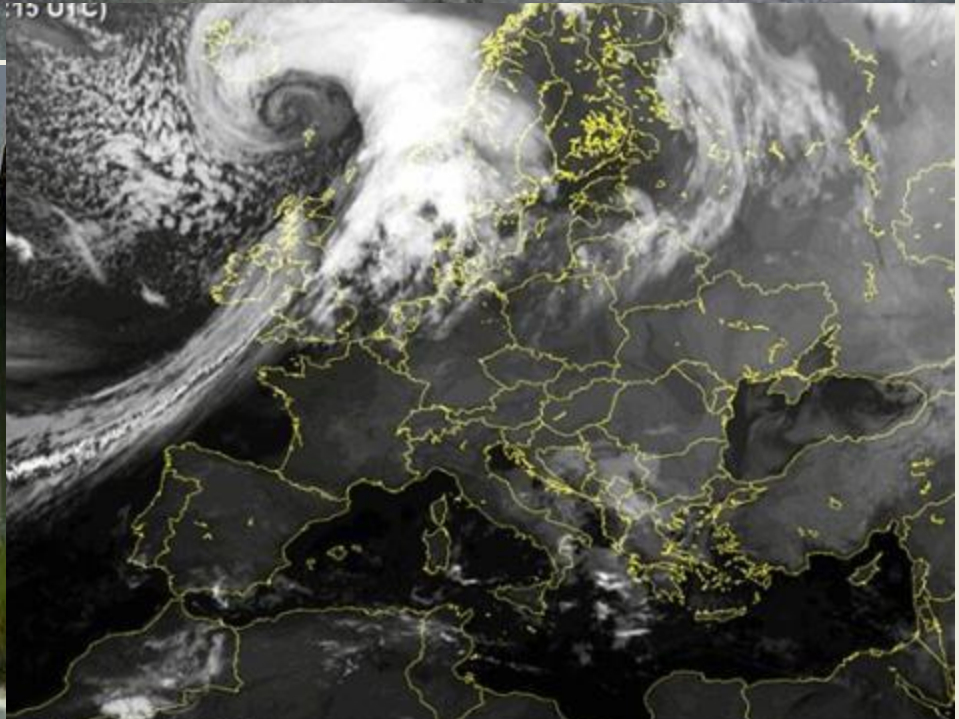

The content

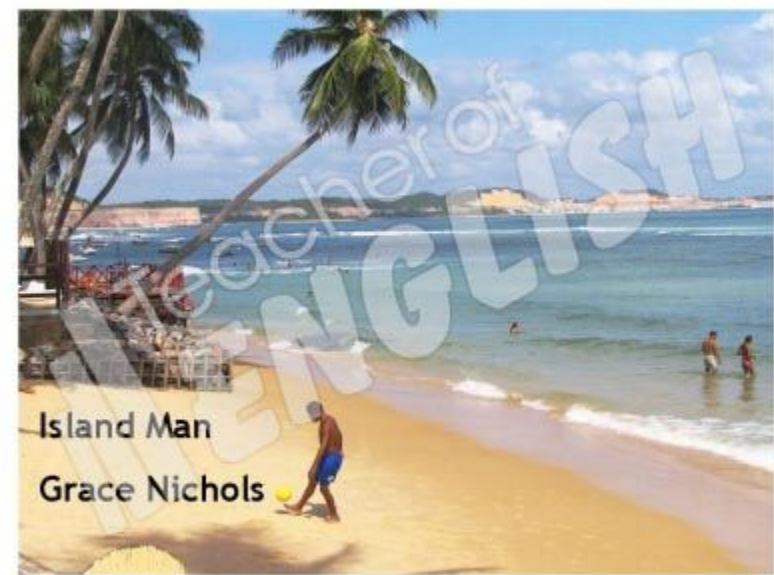

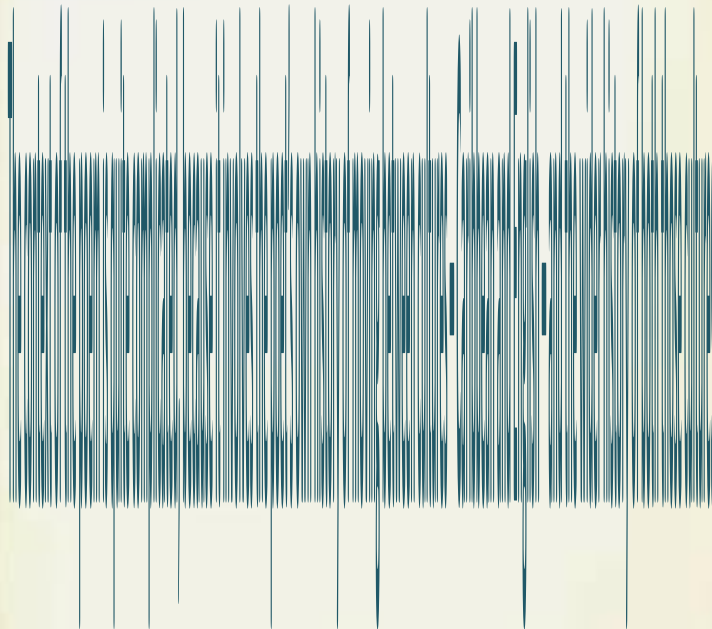

—————

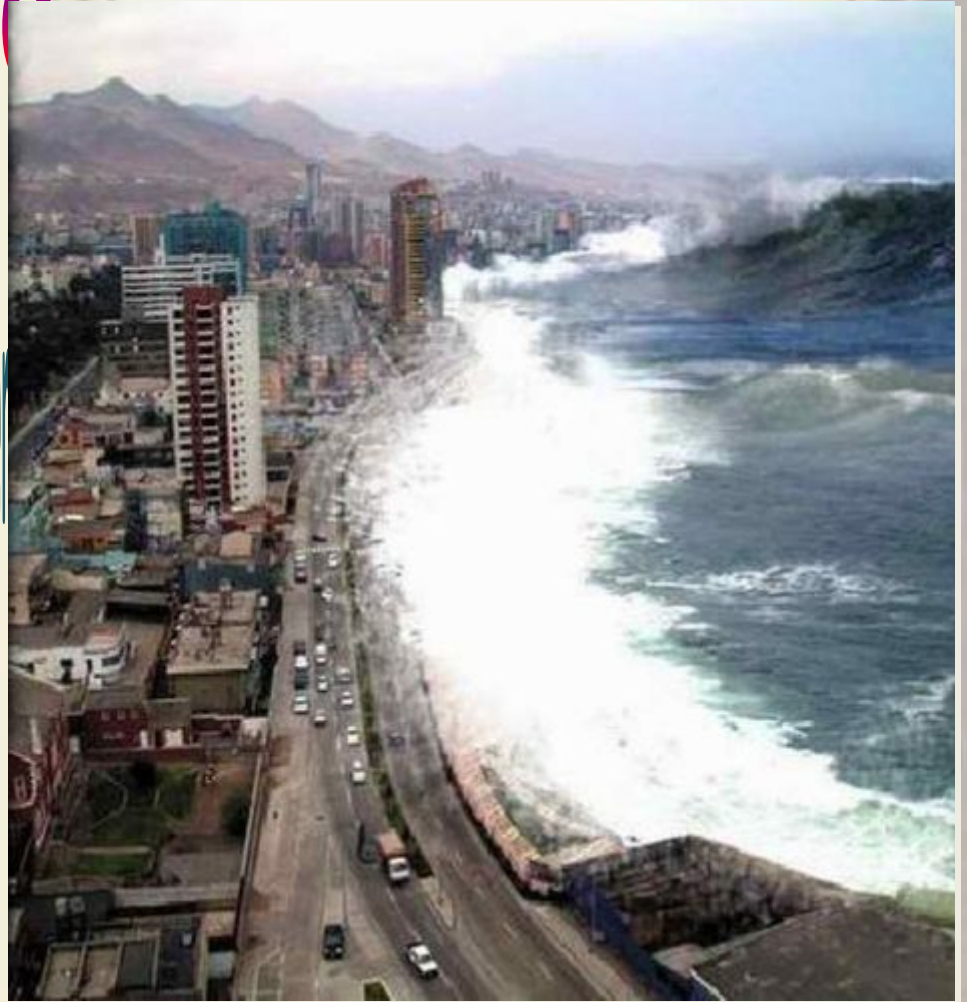

The context

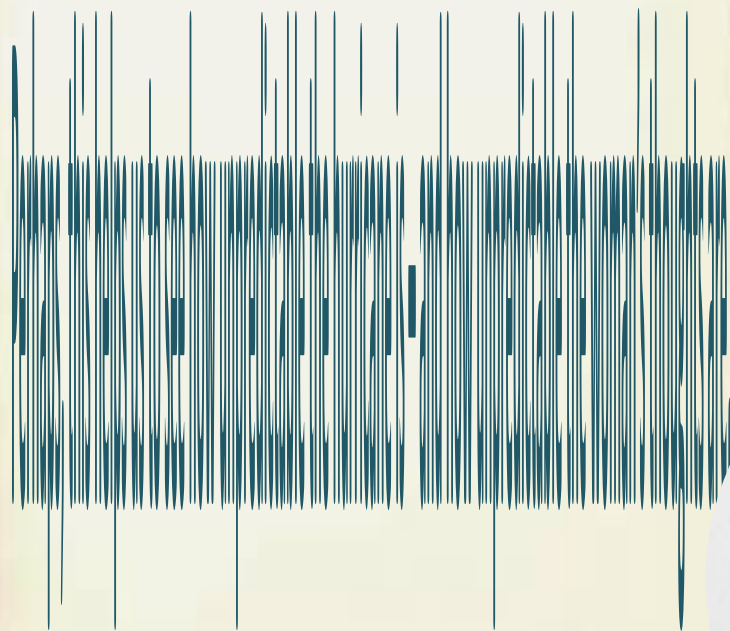

The structure

In its structure, the poem is written as free verse, with eight stanzas of varying length.

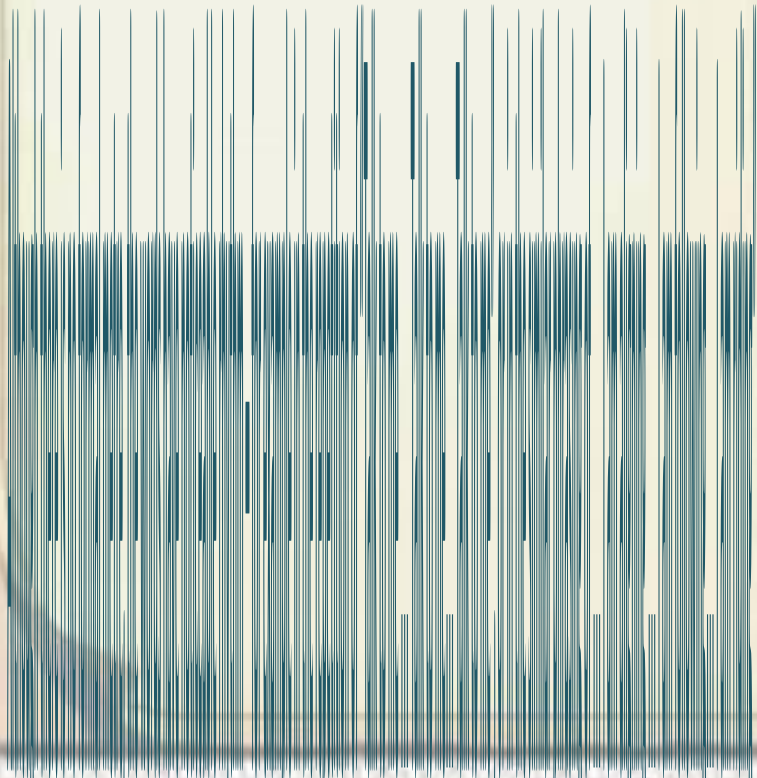

The lines are also of varying length.

The structure

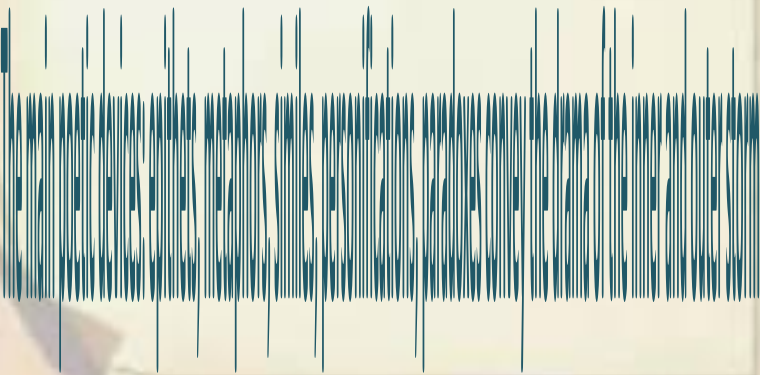

Rhythm

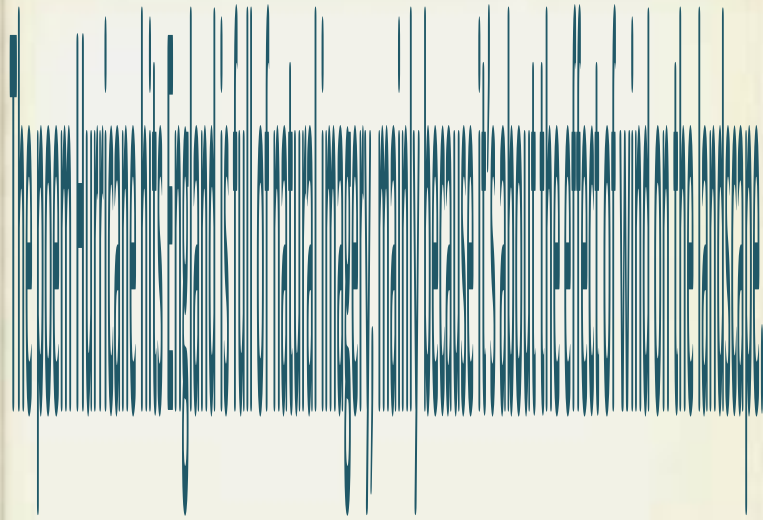

The feelings of the poet

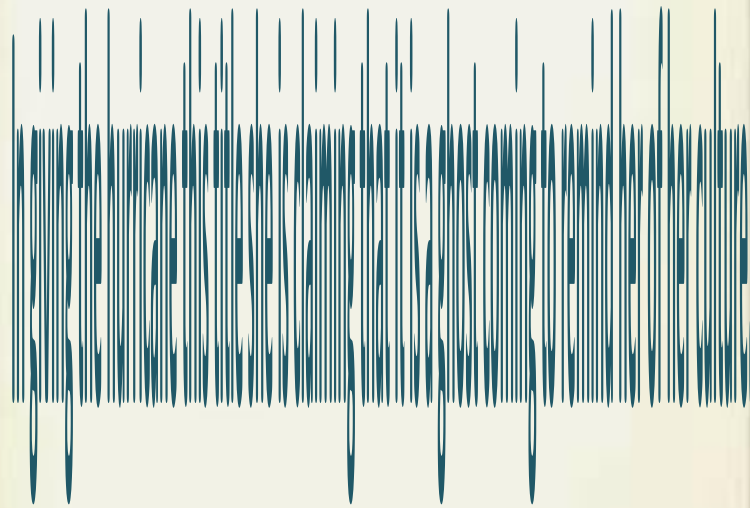

The use of the language Imagery

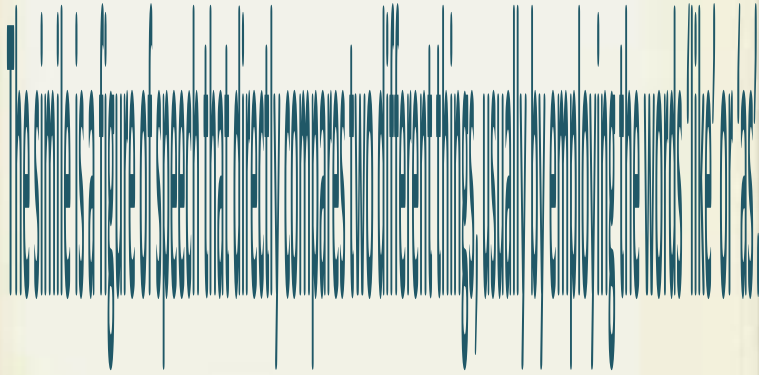

The personification

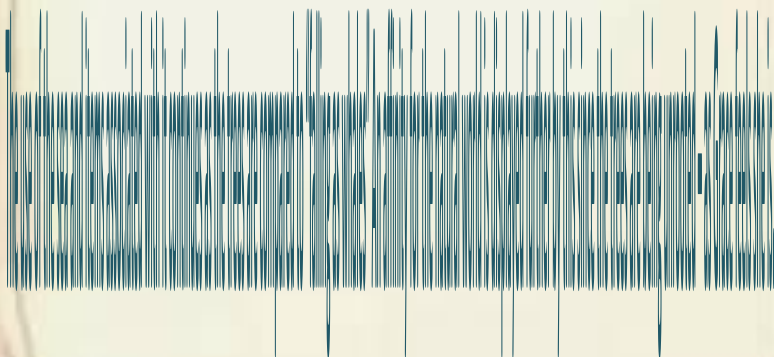

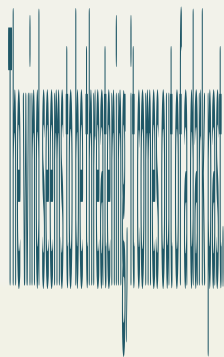

The simile

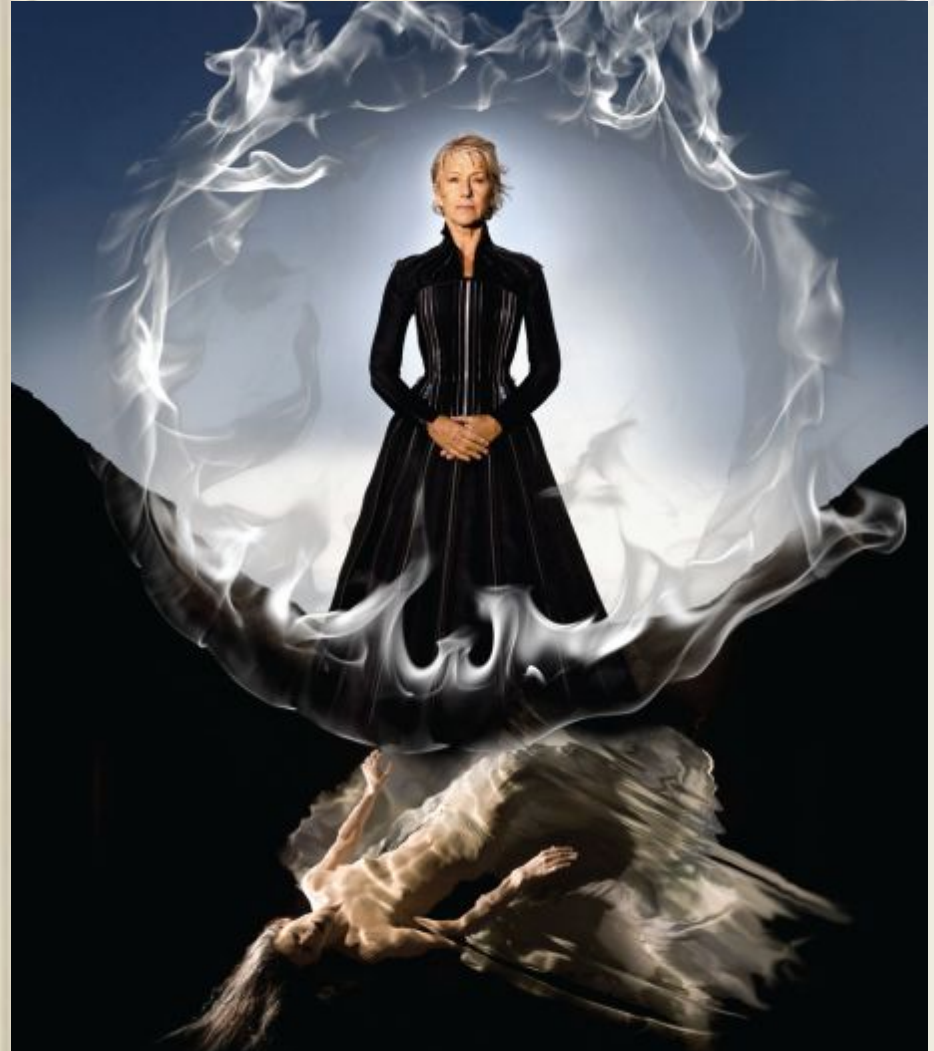

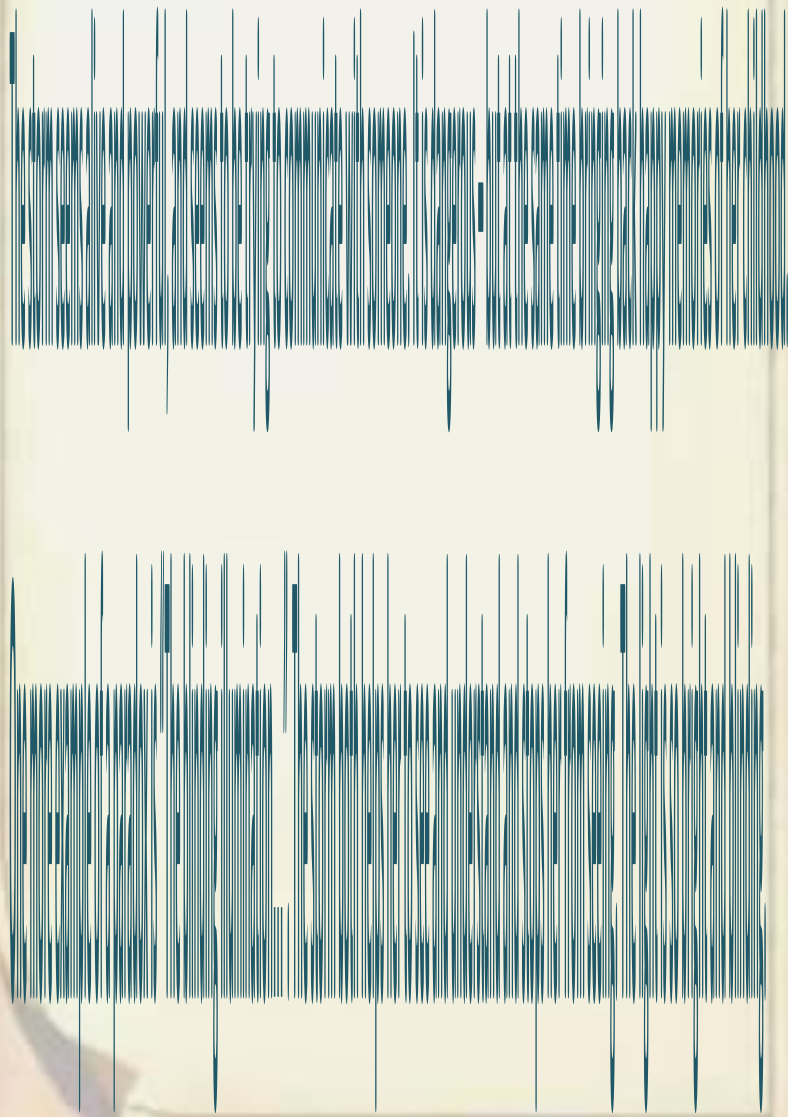

The poet uses a simile: "Like some dark ancestral spectre".

The paradox

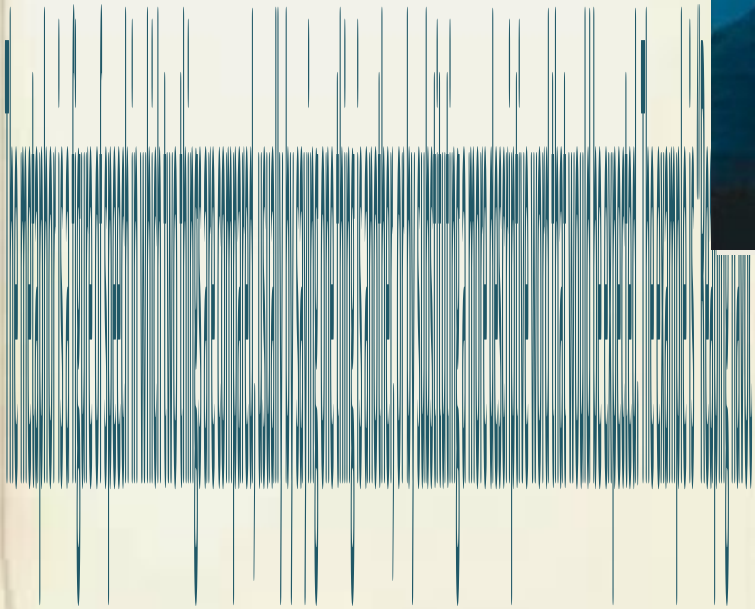

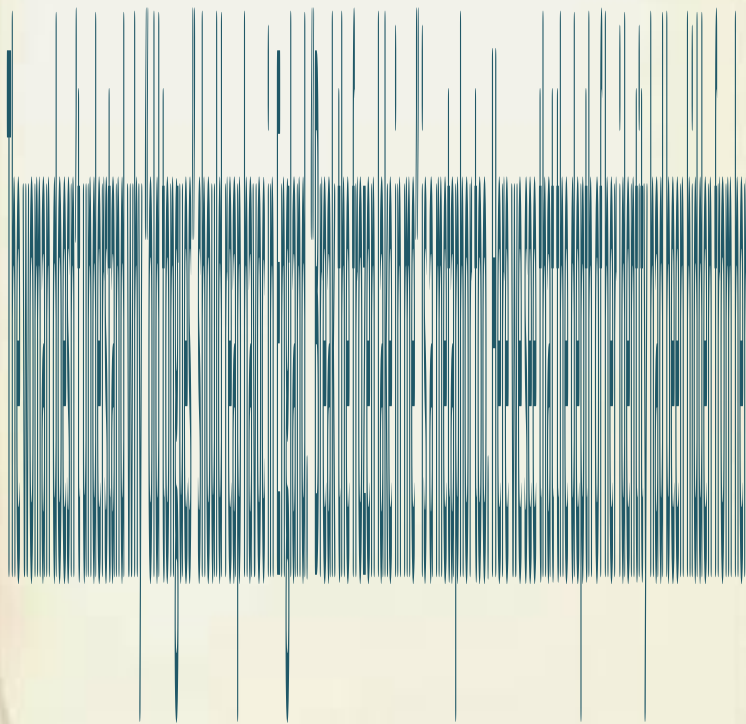

The epithet

The metaphor

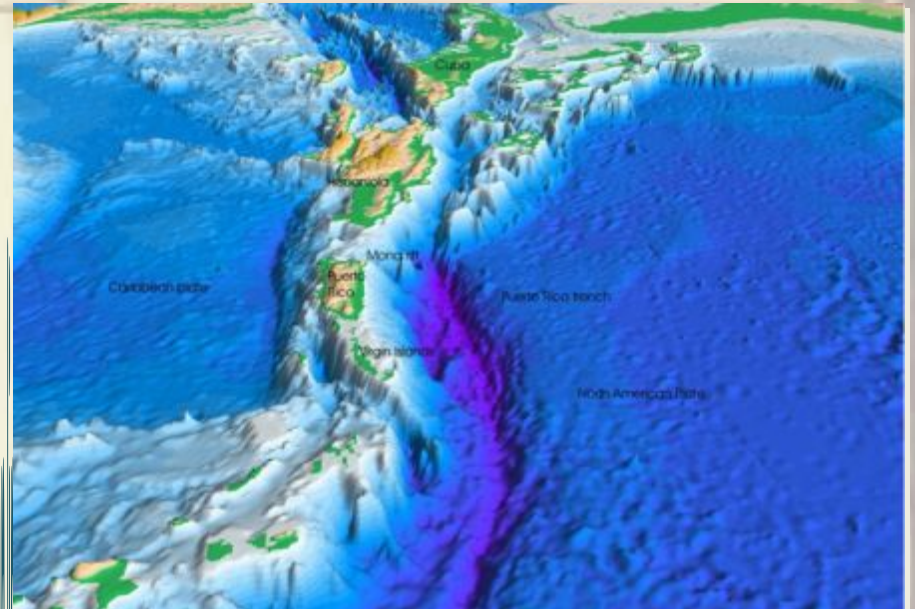

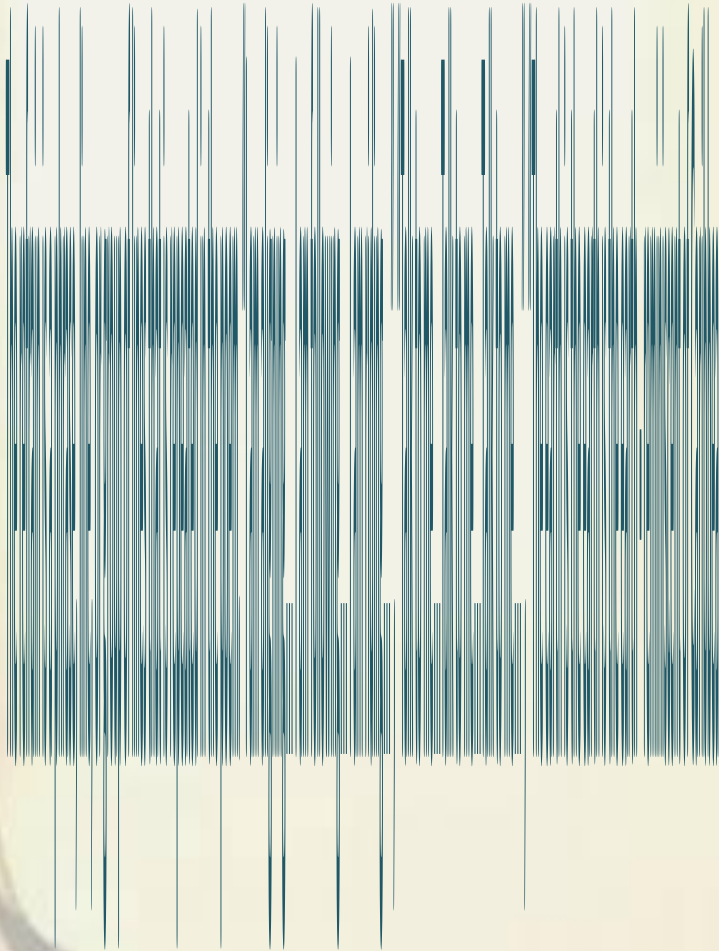

Several billion cold and superficial at surface. In finding the mystery of our storm.

Several billion cold and superficial at surface. In finding the mystery of our storm.

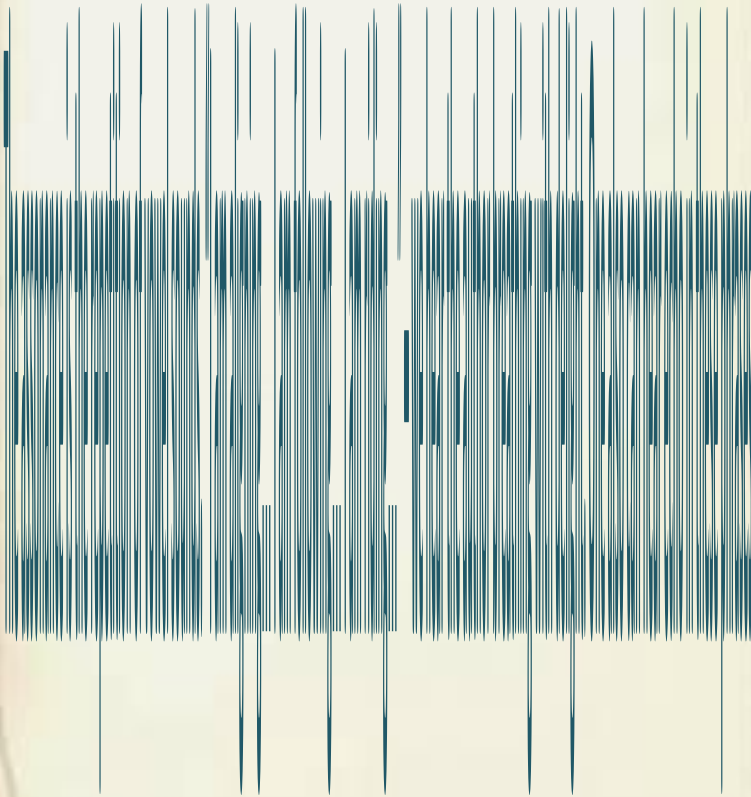

The refrain

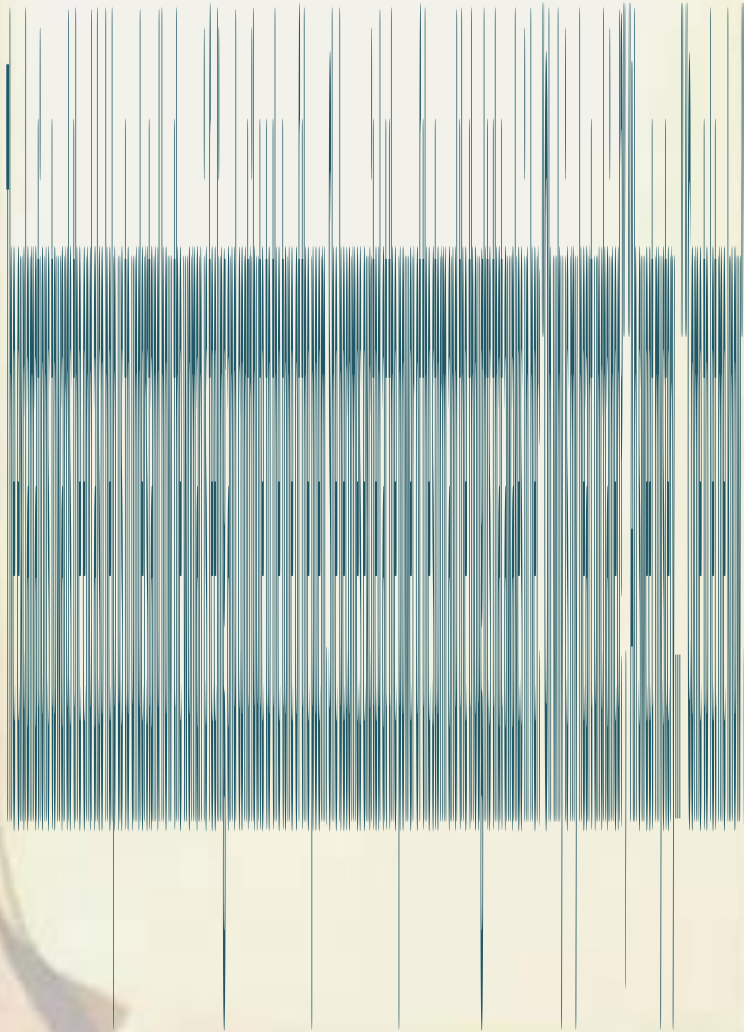

The alliteration

The assonance

The exclamation

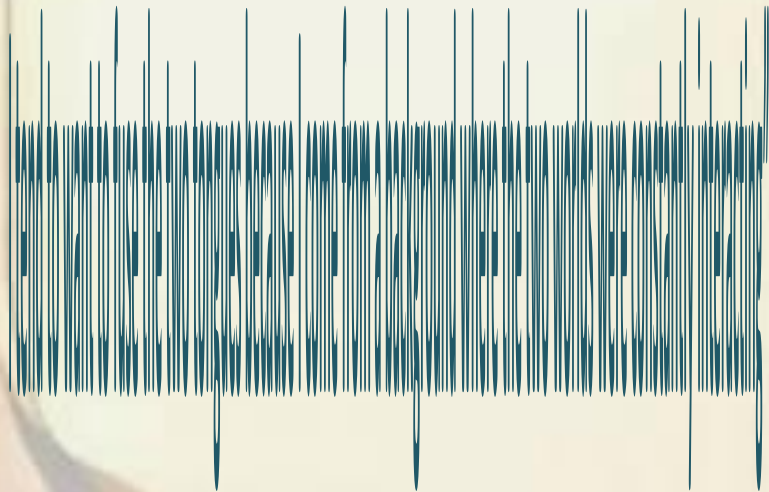

The use of Caribbean language

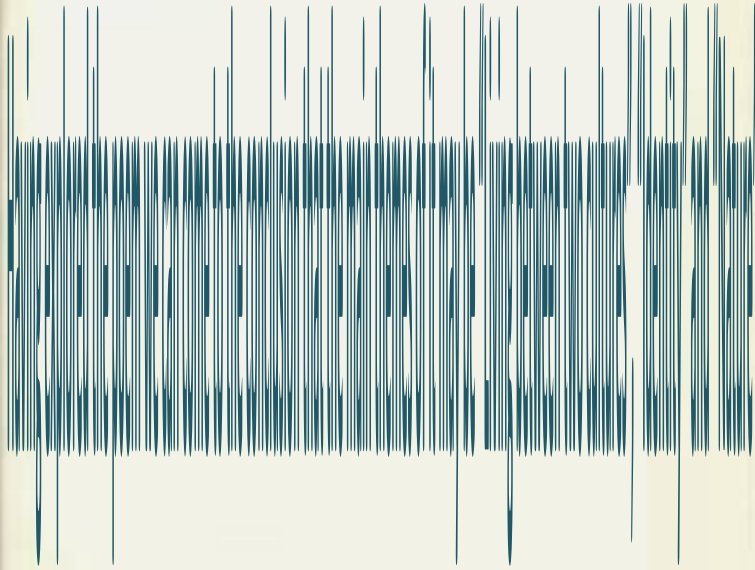

The author uses Caribbean language for the names of gods Hurragan, Oya and Shangó.

They are a part of the world in the Caribbean. They help the author to create a magical

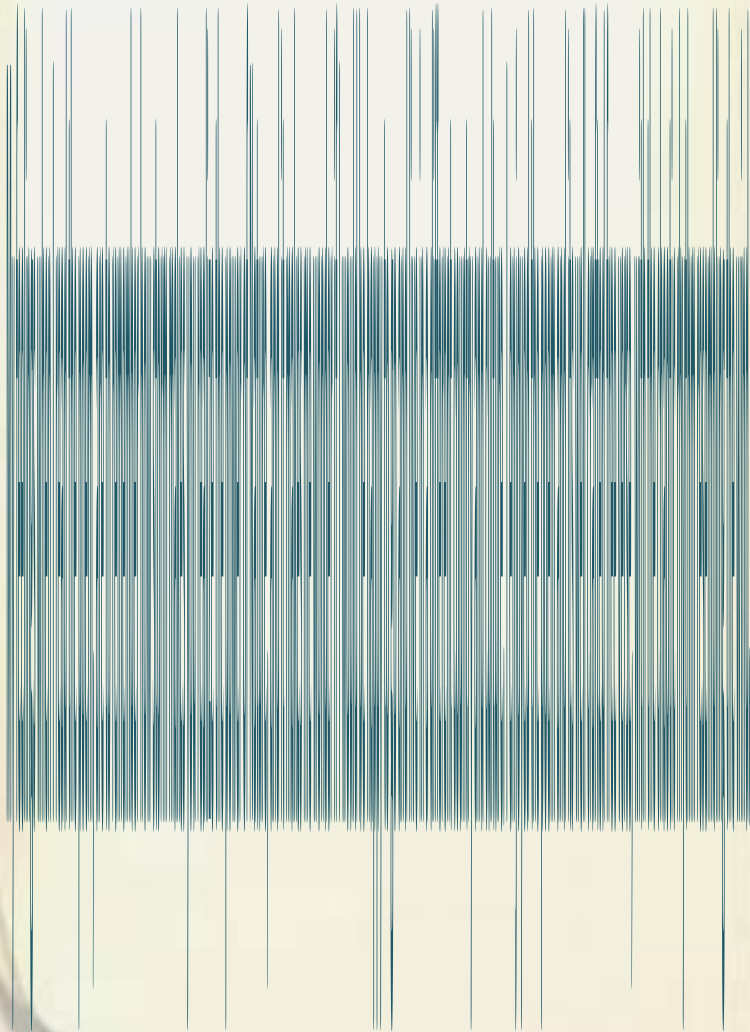

Possible themes

The reader's feelings

The conclusion

