

Festival South Korea

Gajkevich Polina

Chuseok

(추석)

- Chuseok - Korean traditional festival. Celebrating the 15th of the eight lunar month. In South Korea, Chuseok, and the day before and after it, are non-working.

Chuseok 2006
The table for ancestral offerings

• Highways are filled with endless lines of cars, and almost all facilities and shops close for three days. Families gather together to pay tribute to the memory of the departed in the world other relatives and visit their graves. Everyone wants to celebrate Chuseok in his

Seoul International Fireworks Festival

- International Fireworks Festival in Seoul - a major cultural event in South Korea, which is held every October since 2000, where the best of the world of pyrotechnics create a unique holiday atmosphere and beauty. To participate in the festival traditionally attracts a team of specialists at the fireworks from different countries. Here they show

- This is an important event in the world of amateur and professional pyrotechnics traditionally held in the Korean capital on Saturday evening (usually from 19 to 22 hours) on the banks of the Hangan River, the park on the island Yeoido. Teams from around the world - Japan, China, Korea, USA, Australia, Italy, Canada, Hong

The End