Stalingrad

"Stalingrad" - Russia's military drama directed by Fyodor Bondarchuk.

Story

The plot is the " story of love against the backdrop of a grand battle ." The action takes place in 1942 on the German troops occupied the bank of the Volga. Having failed in an attempt to start a counter-attack on the German army , the Soviet army was forced to retreat. However, several soldiers managed to get to the shore of the enemy. They remain in the minority and take refuge in a coastal home, where they meet a girl. Her house is occupied by the Germans , and she did not have time to leave the front line. Against the background of the bloodiest battles in the history of mankind is developing a love story , and now the soldiers at all costs necessary to protect this girl.

Stalingrad - brilliant exciting film, which educative patriotism in the people s hearts.

The film is to preserve the memory of the Great War and the Battle of Stalingrad, to bring a new generation of all the suffering and pain that went through the Soviet people to save our Homeland.

I watched this film, I really liked it. At the end of the movie the audience applauded and did not get up from their seats 2 minutes reflecting on this brilliant film. And people came out with tears in their eyes.
