

Flower's etiquette

Flower's etiquette

Flowers improve our life, bring calm and rest.

To present flowers - means to express the person feelings of love, respect, friendship.

Flowers help to do our relations more intimate, easier.

Word "bouquet" has the French origin and means " beautiful group of flowers ".

As the form of a flower ornament the bouquet has appeared in Europe in XIV-XV

- Today it is already difficult to imagine any event in life without flowers

The bouquet from pansies is considered in England as a wedding bouquet.

The image features a close-up, top-down view of numerous flowers, likely hibiscus, in various shades of yellow and orange. The petals are large and have a distinct, star-like pattern radiating from the center. The flowers are densely packed, creating a vibrant, textured background. In the upper right quadrant, there is a line of text in a light blue, italicized font.

*To choose or make a bouquet for a gift - it is simple,
it is necessary to acquire elementary rules only.*

What flowers can you give?

To close people which taste you well know,
it is better to give their favorite flowers.

For a gift for a man accepts large flowers: tulips, lilies

For women: from modest field flowers up to refined, exotic, depending on an occasion.

Bouquet concerning birth of the child.
To happy mother give a bouquet from her favorite or from the most beautiful and expensive flowers.

