

South Kazakhstan State Pharmaceutical Academy
Department of Foreign Languages

Presentation

Prepared by :Tolbasy A.

Group: 101 «A»MPD

Checked by: Adilova A.

FOOTBALL

- Football (from the English-foot -. Foot, ball - a ball) - a team sport in which the aim is to score the ball in the opponent's legs or other parts of the body (except hands) more times than the opposing team. Currently, the most popular and mass sport in the world.
- The goal - to get the ball into the opponent's goal, to make it as a lot of time and try to prevent a goal into his own net. The match won by the team that scores more goals.

Rules of the game

- There are 17 official rules of the game, each of which contains a list of reservations and guidelines. These rules are intended to apply to all levels of football.
- For flagrant violation of player receives a yellow card for repeated - is shown the red card and sent off. Such a system established with the 1970 World Cup.

Football in the world

- According to FIFA's statement, in 2001, played football on the planet about 250 million people. Of these, more than 20 million - are women. It registered about 1.5 million teams and 300 000 professional clubs.

REAL MADRID

- "Real Madrid" - A Spanish professional football club, named FIFA best football club of the XX century.
- It is one of the most renowned clubs in Spanish football, having won a total of 60 national titles; record 32 championship titles in La Liga, Spanish Cup 19, 9 times became the owner of the Spanish Super Cup. It holds the record for most wins and goals in the Champions League

BASE

- In 1896, the year the club was founded, "Football Sky", which became the ancestor of the Club of Madrid. But the official foundation date is March 6, 1902, when the brothers and Padrós Julian Palacios opened a club called Madrid Football Club. June 29, 1920 King of Spain Alfonso XIII awarded the club the title of Royal, which in Spanish sounds like Real. Hence the modern name of the club - Real Madrid.

Real Madrid 1905 years

Stadium

- The stadium was named "Santiago Bernabeu" in honor of the president of "Real Madrid" 1943-1975 period, which was the initiator of the construction of the new stadium. Construction lasted three years.
- Santiago Bernabeu
- Capacity - 85 044 person.
- The dimensions of the field - 107 x 72 meters.
- Built - 1947
- Opened - December 14, 1947

- Sergio Ramos Garcia (Spanish Sergio Ramos García; March 30, 1986, Camas, Province of Seville, Spain.) - Spanish football player, captain of Spanish club "Real Madrid" and the Spanish national team. World Champion (2010) and two-time European champion (2008, 2012). It occupies the second place in the history of the Spanish national team in the number of the match after Iker Casillas.
- In summer 2005, Madrid "Real" has acquired Ramos for 27 million euros.
January 7, 2012 Ramos played his 250th match in the Liga.
- August 17, 2015 Ramos has signed a new contract with "Real" until 2020, with a salary of 10 million euros per year. After leaving Iker Casillas Ramos was the new captain of Madrid "Real".

- Cristiano Ronaldo dos Santos Aveiro [9] (port Cristiano Ronaldo dos Santos Aveiro; born February 5, 1985, Funchal..) - Portuguese footballer who plays for Spanish club "Real Madrid" and the national team of Portugal, as part of which was the 2016 European champion of the year. It is the most expensive player in football history to 2013 - due to its transition from the English "Manchester United" in "Real" 80 million pounds sterling was paid. Top scorer in the history of the Portuguese national team, as well as the record for most games played for her matches. It is considered one of the best players of our time
- In summer 2009, Ronaldo moved to the "Real Madrid". During the talks, Florentino Perez and David Alan Gill agreed on the sum of 93.4 million euros (about 80 million pounds). Portuguese midfielder became the most expensive player in the history of world football

