

The image is a composite graphic. In the background, the Union Jack flag is shown in a dynamic, waving motion, with its red, white, and blue stripes and cross pattern. Overlaid on the flag is a vertical, golden-colored image of the Elizabeth Tower, commonly known as Big Ben, in London. The tower's intricate Gothic architecture and the large clock face are visible. The text 'Football stadiums in Great Britain' is superimposed over the center of the image in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font. The text is arranged in two lines: 'Football stadiums' on the top line and 'in Great Britain' on the bottom line. The overall composition suggests a connection between British national identity and the sport of football.
