Here is a dog -
one lonely dog.

But here comes a friend –
a little green frog.

And one dirty pig –

a pink one, of course,

pink pig

And along with the pig comes a big friendly horse!

The horse brings a friend –
there are two horses now, horses

And a duck that is riding a black-and-white cow.

All out of breath,
along comes a cat.

She is so very tired from chasing the rat.

Here come her brothers –
now there are three cats,

cats

And two little birds
that wear funny hats.

There are so many friends,
some big and some small.

So the dog is not lonely –

oh no, not at all!
