

A close-up photograph of several British one-pound coins stacked on top of each other. The coins are silver-colored and feature the Royal Coat of Arms and the text 'ONE POUND' and 'ELIZABETH II'. The text 'Funding for higher education in the UK' is overlaid in a bold, green, sans-serif font across the center of the image.

Funding for higher education in the UK

INTRODUCTION

Scholarships

Who controls the funding of universities?

The Council on Higher Education Funding.

HIGHER EDUCATION

FUNDING COUNCIL

hefce

FOR ENGLAND

Sources of funding for universities

- ❖ government grants
- ❖ private donations
- ❖ Grants and scholarships

The state and the funding of universities.

The cost of education

$16 572-22 096

dream big..

study in
UK

Grants and scholarships

In the UK there are such grants as the

- ❖ Chevening
- ❖ Marshall
- ❖ Commonwealth
- ❖ John Smith
- ❖ Hill Foundation
- ❖ Nyutonskie scholarships
- ❖ ORSAS

Conclusion

Thus, in the UK there are various financing mechanisms of higher education. The state's efforts to strengthen the national system of education, supplemented by the efforts of private enterprise, not only to determine the mechanisms of financing education, but also the structure of educational standards and core curricula.

Thank you for your attention!