Subculture- (the behaviour, beliefs, and customs of) a particular group of people within a society, often a group whose behaviour is disapproved of by most people.

- Subculture is any group within a larger complex culture who have interests that vary from those of the mainstream culture.
 - Subculture is a group with a distinct style and identity.

What are the ways of expressing the individuality?

Why do young people join the group?

What groups are there in the world?

Teenagers have a particular relationship with the world.
They always try to express their individuality.

To express it they try to

- show off;
 - show a rebellion against the parents, the regime, society;
 - reject everything;
 - join the group or the organization.

One of the most popular way of expressing the individuality is to join the group or the organization.

Teenagers join the group because they want:
