

How to behave on the train?

Teenagers need to train:

- 1) to take his place in the carriage indicated in the ticket*
- 2) observe good personal hygiene (wash ,brush teeth , wash hands)*

3)to respect the day

4)to observe the rules of fire safety

5)to inform an adult if health deteriorated

Teenagers don't need to train:

1) sit on the top shelf more than two people

2) go into the vestibule during train movement

3) look out the window if it is open (during the train)

4) throw garbage out the window
5) to play outdoor games
6) Smoking

A young boy with short brown hair, wearing a blue and white striped t-shirt, is seen from behind, looking out of a train window. His hands are resting on the window ledge. To his right, another person's hand is visible, also resting on the ledge. The view outside the window shows a vast, flat landscape under a cloudy sky, with a line of green trees in the distance. The train's interior structure is visible on the right side of the frame.

the train is allowed:

1)to move from carriage to carriage with the guide

2)Open the Windows in the compartment, if allows the maintainer or conductor

A perspective view of a railway track stretching into the distance. The tracks are made of metal rails and wooden sleepers, set on a bed of gravel. The track leads the eye towards a hazy, overcast horizon. The surrounding area is filled with green grass and some trees in the background. The text "Have a good trip!" is written in a black, cursive font across the upper portion of the image.

Have a good trip!