

Imagine that you are preparing a project with your friend. You have found some interesting material for the presentation and you want to read this text to your friend. You have 1.5 minutes to read the text silently, then be ready to read it out loud. You will not have more than 1.5 minutes to read it.

Jobs of the future

You are now choosing your future career and are considering what jobs are high in demand in the modern world. But actually you will start working full time in several years only so why not think about what jobs will be necessary then? In our world, which is rapidly changing, several years means a long time really. There will be more IT specialists in all spheres, especially in medicine. There will be genetic engineering affordable for all people. More and more things are done online nowadays so there will be people who regulate our life in the Internet like Internet lawyers, for instance. There will probably be eco psychologists – psychologists for animals and plants. More and more professions will be inevitably connected with exploring the outer space as well. So before making your final decision, try to look into the future of our planet and you will probably choose a job which will be popular in ten years' time.

No3 Imagine that you took some photos when doing a project on different professions. Choose the one to show to your friend.

In your talk remember to speak about:

- when you took the photo
- what/who is in the photo
- what is happening
- why you kept the photo
- why you decided to show the picture to your friend

№4 be ready to compare and contrast the photographs:

- give a brief description of the photos (action, location)
- say what the pictures have in common
- say in what way the pictures are different
- say which of the professions presented in the pictures is more demanding
- explain why
