

National Historic-Cultural Sanctuary / Monastery

KIEV PECHERSK LAVRA

- Kyiv in 1890.
- The word pechera means cave. The word lavra is used to describe high-ranking monasteries for monks of the Eastern Orthodox Church. Therefore the name of the monastery is also translated as Kiev Cave Monastery, Kiev Caves Monastery or the Kiev Monastery of the Caves

According to the Primary Chronicle, monastery was build by architects from Constantinople.

Monasterium Pecherenge Kijovica.

The Great Lavra Belltower

The Cathedral of the Dormition

Inside the Lavra

indesarchiv, Bild 146-2005-0070
Foto: Kress | 1042

the ruins of the Cathedral
of the Dormition in 1942.

Plan of Kiev
Pechersk Lavra

Burnt Odigitria

This icon burnt with the ruins of the Cathedral
of the Dormition.

Monument to Konstanty Ostrogski

«The Great Church of the Kiev-Pechersk Lavra» painted by V. Vereshagin

- Ukrainian postmark in 2007.

- Orthodox pilgrim in Kiev Pechersk Lavra - women must cover their head while entering Lavra.

