• We can't imagine our life without means of Mass Media

TV is one of the best inventions the man ever made.

The first dated printed book known is the "Diamond Sutra", printed in China in 868 AD

The term «Mass Media» was coined
with the creation of print media in Europe in the Middle Ages

Johannes Gutenberg printed the first book on a printing press in 1453 Newspapers developed from about 1612. But they reached the audience only in the 19th century.

TALES THAT ARE CREEPY.

THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD

MISSING FOR SIX MONTHS And Feared Dead By Town. MURDERER AFOOT?

SHADOWY DOINGS

The novel begins as a man, who we later learn is John Jasper, leaves a London opium den. The next evening, Edwin Drood visits Jasper, his uncle, who is the choirmaster at Cloisterham Cathedral. Edwin confides that he has misgivings about his betrothal to Rosa Bud. The next day, Edwin visits Rosa at the Nuns' House, the boarding school where she lives. They quarrel good-naturedly, which they apparently do frequently during his visits. Meanwhile, having an interest in the cathedral cemetery, Jasper seeks the company of Durdles, a man who knows more about the cemetery than anyone else.

A TASTE OF SETTLING

The Mysterious Landless and his twin sister Helena are sent to Cloisterham for their education. Neville will study with the minor canon, Rev. Crisparkle; Helena will live at the Nuns' House with Rosa. Neville confides to Rev. Crisparkle that he has hated his cruel stepfather, while Rosa confides to Helena that she loathes and fears her music-master, Jasper. Neville is immediately smitten with Rosa and is indignant that Edwin prizes his betrothal lightly. Edwin provokes him and he reacts violently, giving Jasper the opportunity to spread rumours about Neville's reputation of having a violent temper. Rev. Crisparkle tries to reconcile Edwin and Neville, who agrees to apologize to Edwin if the latter will forgive him. It is arranged that they will dine together for this purpose on Christmas Eve at Jasper's home.

Edition No. 11

BEAUTIFUL ROSA BUD

The Victim? Or the Murderess? Rosa's guardian, Mr. Greengrass, tells her that she has a substantial inheritance from her father. When she asks whether there would be any fortune if she did not marry Edwin, he replies that there would be none on either side. Back at his office in London, Mr. Greengrass gives Edwin a ring which Rosa's father had given to her mother, with the proviso that Edwin must either give the ring to Rosa as a sign of his irrevocable commitment to her, or return it to Mr. Greengrass. Mr. Bazzard, Mr. Greengrass's clerk, witnesses this transaction.

"No other trace of him is found"

A SCANDAL IN THE CATHEDRAL!

They decide to ask Mr. Greengrass to break the news to Jasper, and Edwin intends to return the ring to Mr. Greengrass. Meanwhile, Durdles takes Jasper into the cathedral crypt. On the way there Durdles points out a mound of quicklime. Jasper provides a bottle of wine to Durdles. The wine is mysteriously potent, and Durdles soon loses consciousness; while unconscious he dreams that Jasper goes off by himself in the crypt. As they return from the crypt, they encounter a boy called Deputry, and Jasper, thinking he was spying on them, takes him by the throat, but seeing that this will strangle him, lets him go. Next day, Rosa and Edwin amicably agree to end their betrothal.
