The Great North Country and Western Festival is the oldest Country Music

- The Great North Country and Western Festival is the oldest Country Music Festival in the North of England
- There is a huge marquee with a professionally built stage, lighting and sound system, Seating at the front of the stage is for those who wish to simply sit and listen to the music, and behind it are table and chairs for those who wish to 'do their own thing' and at the back a spacious dance floor surrounded by circular tables and chairs for those who wish to dance.
