My favorite singer is the rap singer Oleg Savchenko,
better known under the scenic pseudonym of the LSP.
And I want to talk a little about him.

The debut mini-album of Oleg LSP "To see colored dreams" was released on September 16, 2011. In the following period Oleg meets and unites efforts in work on new music with Roma Anglicanin, the first fruit of cooperation with which is the single «Nomera». On May 24, 2014, Oleg and Roman unexpectedly release another album - the numbered «Viselica». February 3, 2015 there is a mini album "LSP" Romantic Colegition, whose name beats the names of its creators. July 19, 2015, Oleg releases his solo album - numbered Magic City. On September 30, 2016, the LSP will release a mini-album "Confectionery" with Pharaoh. On April 28, 2017, Oleg and Roman release the sequel to the Magic City number-numbered Tragic City album.

July 30, 2017 the participant of the project "LSP" Roma Anglichanin died.

August 5, Oleg said that the project will not be closed, and the tour in support of Tragic City will still take place. After the tour started, it became known that Den Hawk (a colleague of Piggy Bang group) and Pyotr Klyuyev entered Oleg's new concert group.

The most famous songs of LSP. These are: «Sinee», «Telo», «OK», «Kanat», «Labyrint Otrazheniy», «Zachem mne etot mir», «Biggie», «Vverh vniz», «Ne nuzhna».

The End.
