

My native city is Stary Oskol

Abilov Arif

This dolphin it have made of a grass when I have come and have seen it and have thought that it live appears it was not live.

And here it is the arms of the Belgorod region.

On a stone it is written when it was founded.

And here on the stone it is written :the president of Russia has appropriated the city of Stary Oskol is the City of Military Glory.

And here is the stadium of Stary Oskol.

- I love my town very much. I'm proud to live in such a cosy and wonderful town.
