MY SPORTS IDOL

Margarita Mamun
Russian Gymnast

Russian gymnast, Olympic champion, seven-time world champion in rhythmic gymnastics four-time European champion, four-time winner of the Universiade in Kazan, the champion of the first European games 2015 in Baku, a multiple winner of the grand prix and world cup.

Sporting achievements.
 Her first championship gold talented gymnast won in 2011 in the championship of Russia, where she became the best in the all-around, and the same for the two kinds of exercises. On this wave of success, the girl was sent to the world cup in Canada, and she met the expectations, taking bronze in the all-around and the highest award in the exercises with the ball. For extraordinary plasticity and grace, given its exotic origin, the gymnast dubbed "the Bengal tiger".

Next, 2012 was marked by new victories, the chief of which was the title of absolute champion of the Russian federation. Mamun repeated this success in 2013, becoming the champion of the country for the third time. Coach's gymnastics team Irina Viner has recognized the athlete and team leader. In the same year it was collected generous "harvest" of medals, the main of which was the victory for its first championship in the team competition and exercise ribbon and also gold for two kinds of exercises in her debut at the world championship, which took place in the capital of Ukraine.

But in the club world championships aeon cup she was accompanied by absolute success – the highest award in team and individual all-around. This success Margaret repeated in the next, 2015the performance in the world cup 2015 has brought new gold into the treasury of a gymnast in the team competition and one kind of exercise. Occupied second place in the individual all-around gave the athlete the opportunity to participate in the Olympics 2016, and it is this opportunity implemented in the best way – became the Olympic champion in the individual all-around, inscribing his name in the history of the Olympic victories.

THAT'S ALL