

New York

New York now

- New York-the largest metropolis in the United States, located on the East coast of the continent.
- It is the largest financial, economic and trade center of the planet, often called the "capital of the world".
- Here is the headquarters of the United Nations, the famous new York stock exchange and other organizations of world importance
- .Also in this city there are many attractions, and some we will see now.

1. Manhattan

- Prestigious administrative district of new York, where the main financial offices and cultural institutions of the city. To get around it and stay in every interesting place is not enough and a week, despite the relatively small size of the area
- The island of Manhattan was purchased by a Dutch explorer Peter Minuite from an Indian tribe for $ 24.

2. Statue of liberty

- The most famous symbol of the United States, a monument that represents the freedom and independence of the state.
- The statue was presented to America by the French and originally served as a sign of friendship between the American and French peoples.
- The monument was recognized as a monument of world importance in 1984.

3. The Empire state building

The tallest building in the city (381 meters), the third highest in the United States. Skyscraper is a popular monument of new York architecture, here first of all rush all the guests of the city. The tower is used as an office center for various companies, more than 20 thousand people work here every day. At the top there is a spire-TV tower, which distributes TV and radio signals of local channels throughout the city.

4. Broadway Street

Unusually long street in Manhattan, which stretches for 25 km and It crosses almost all the districts in the area. In Broadway skyscrapers are offices of the largest American and international corporations, there is also a well-known stock exchange in new York. Broadway crosses the trendy SOHO district, stretches to the city Hall, reaches the outskirts and leaves for the outskirts of Albany.

5. Times square

The square, where you can feel the spirit of the city, touch its traditions and history.

The place was named due to the newspaper "new York times", which placed here his office back in 1904.

Times Square is a territory where there are famous shops, cinemas, hotels, restaurants (including the legendary "Hard rock cafe"), music halls. The square is full of people 24 hours a day.

6. New York Central Park

The most popular and picturesque new York city Park, clamped between 8th and 5th Avenue. The Park almost immediately became a favorite place of citizens for picnics, walks, sports. Office clerks are resting in lunch break, mothers with children recline on the beautiful lawns on the lake the boat ride couples

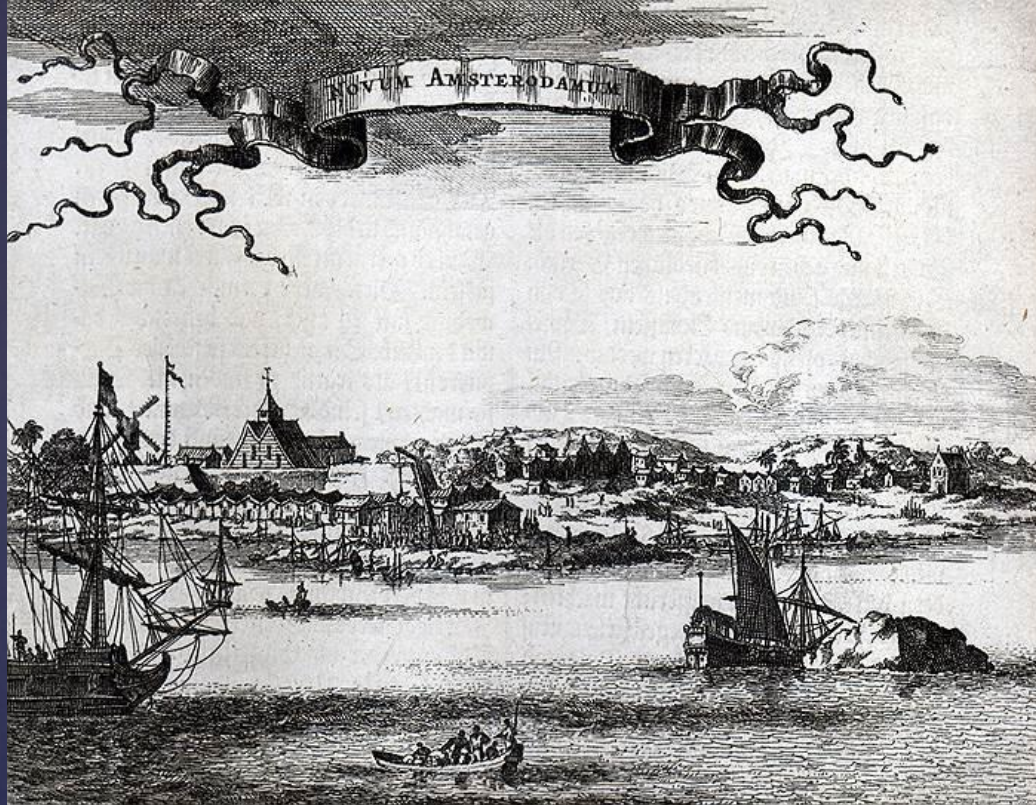

INTRESTING
FACTS

1

The island of Manhattan was purchased by a Dutch explorer Peter Minuite from an Indian tribe for $ 24.

2

Until 1664, New York was called New Amsterdam.

3

New York consists of five districts: the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens, Manhattan and Staten Island.

4

Almost all bridges and tunnels in New York are paid.
Directions - $ 6,5.

5

? in New York wages from waiters are often not at all, and they work exclusively for a tip.

6

Every passerby in New York can become a hero of the film. Every year more than 200 pictures are shot in the city.

7

In New York, about 25% of the world's gold bullion reserves are stored.

They are at a depth of 24 meters under the branch of the Federal Reserve Bank on Wall Street.

New York is called the Great Apple. There are several versions of the nickname. The most common is that black jazzmen gave this name to New York.

Thanks