

The formation of the United Kingdoms

Подготовили ученики 9 класса «D»: Ананидзе Дмитрий, Давурашвили Евгений

Education

UK

Place in the world

English-speaking countries

English language
English is one of the official languages
Language of wider communication

THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH

A world map highlighting the member states of the British Commonwealth in red. To the left and right of the map are columns of flags for various member states, including Denmark, Kingdom of Lesotho, Canada, United States of America, United Kingdom, East Africa, Sudan, South Africa, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, India, and others. Below the map are the national symbols for England (a red cross on a white field), Ireland (a green harp on a green field), Scotland (a white saltire on a blue field), and Wales (a red dragon on a green and white field). The motto "Freedom, Fraternity, Federation" is written below these symbols.

Famous universities University of Oxford

University
of Cambridge

School

Senior
Schools

- for Teens 13 to 18 years

Secondary
school

- education for children aged 11 years

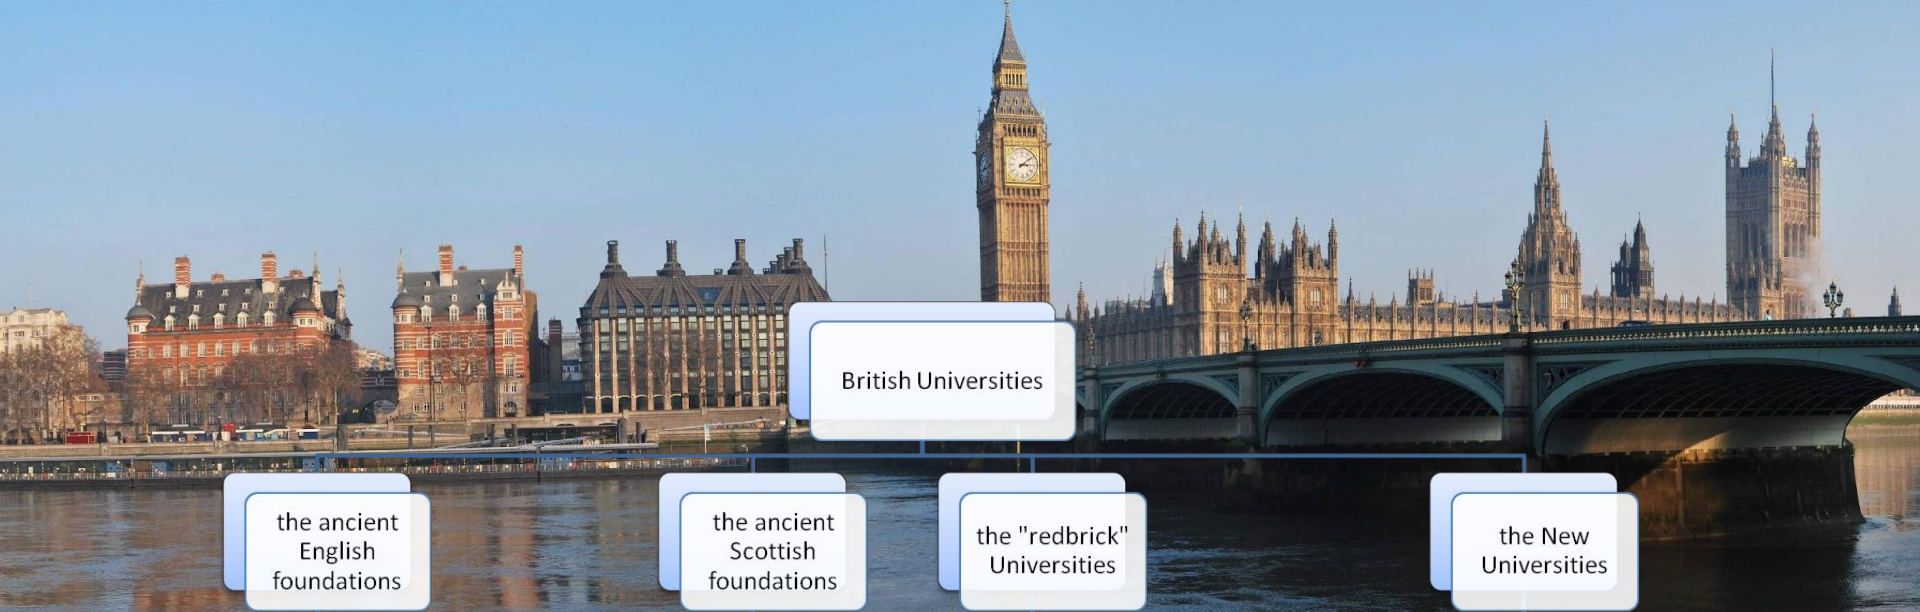

Grammar
school

- education for children aged 11 years in advanced placement

To school education

- Most British children enter public elementary school at age 5, and then 11 years pass in the secondary education classes at the same school

British Universities

the ancient English foundations the ancient Scottish foundations the "redbrick" Universities

the New Universities

Oxford

- were founded in
- consist of
- the basic mode of instruction is

Cambridge

- four universities
- were founded in

- were founded in
- were sited in
- the most famous is

- were founded after
- were named after the Open University

polytechnics

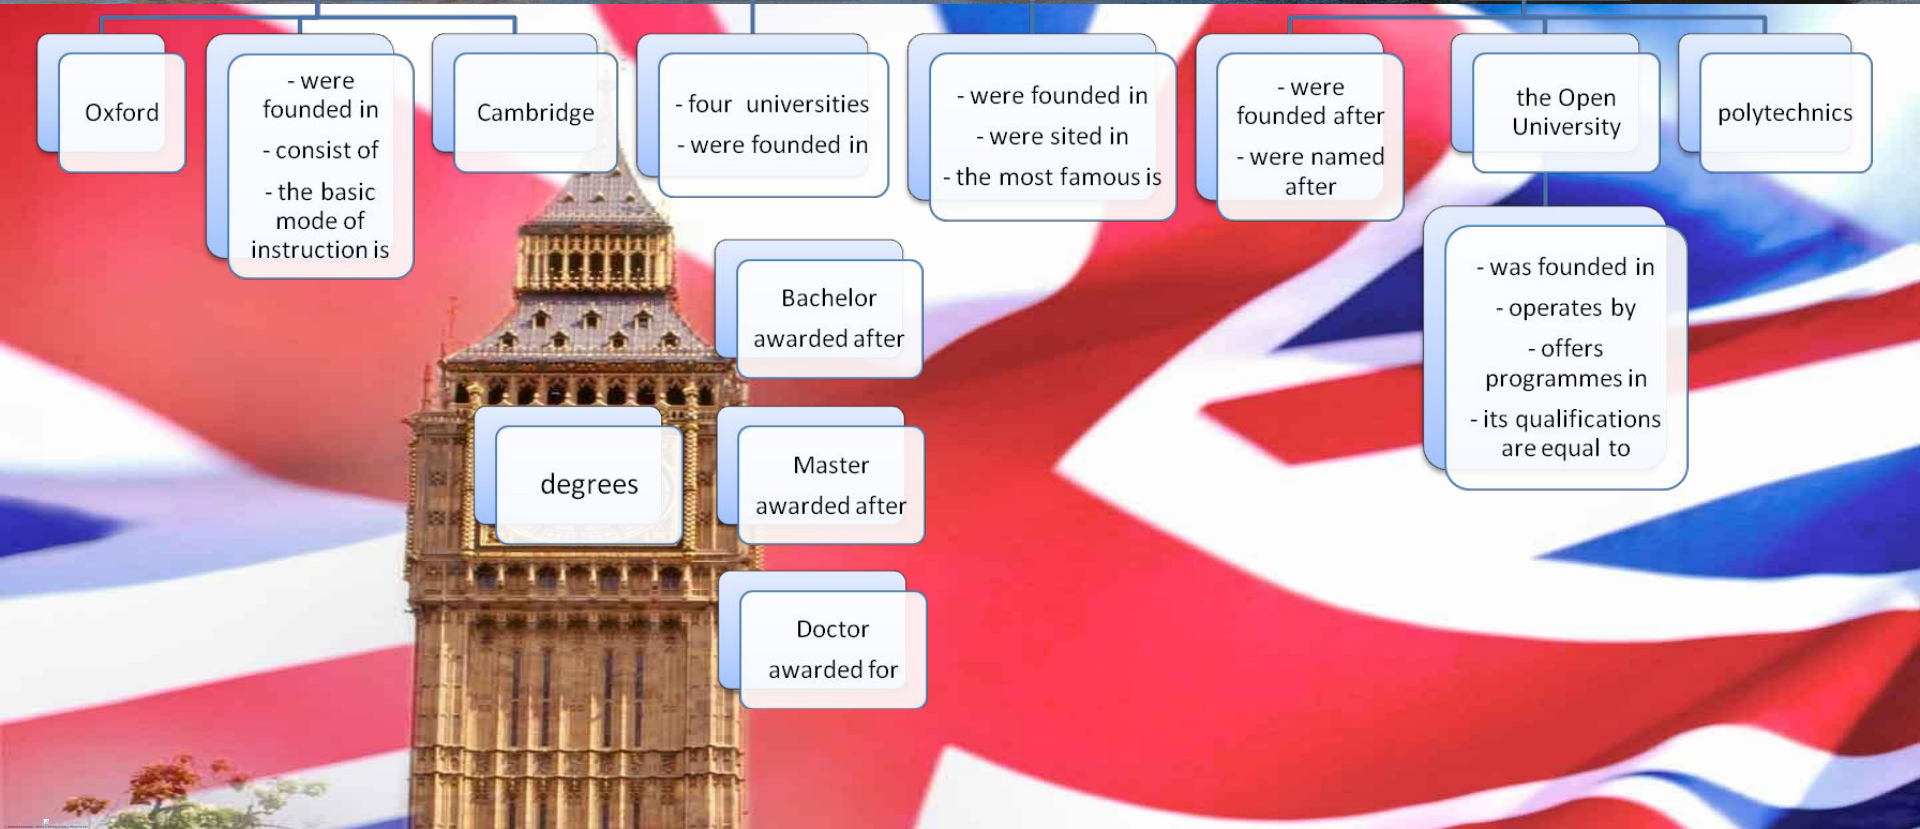

- was founded in
- operates by
- offers programmes in
- its qualifications are equal to

degrees

Bachelor awarded after

Master awarded after

Doctor awarded for

Thank you for your attention