A red question mark icon is positioned at the top center of the image, above the main text.

1. Arrivederci, sweetheart!

4. Moscow, we are in trouble!

The background of the slide is a photograph of the Apollo 13 mission control room. It shows a large, curved wall with a light-colored, textured surface. Two large spotlights are mounted on the wall, one on the left and one on the right, both pointing towards the center. The floor is dark and appears to be made of wood or a similar material. In the foreground, there are several rows of dark blue seats, suggesting a theater or a control room. The overall lighting is dim, with the spotlights providing the main illumination.

Houston, we have a problem!
