PAST SIMPLE, PAST CONTINUOUS

What's the difference?

Past Simple

- 1. Completed actions at a specific time in the past;
- 2. Completed situations and states in the past;
 - 3. Repeated actions in the past;
- 4. The main events and situations in the story.

1. I bought three CDs yesterday.

- 2. I had green hair for a while as a teenager.
- 3. We played football every Saturday.
- 4. I ran out of the house, crossed the road and jumped on the bus.

How to form?

Regular Verbs

- 1. Affirmative sentences: V + ed (He visited his cousin two days ago.)
- Interrogative sentences: Did he visit his cousin two days ago?
- Negative sentences: He didn't visit his cousin two days ago.

Irregular verbs

- 1. Affirmative sentences V2 (They went to London last year.)
- Interrogative sentences: Did they go to London last year?
- Negative sentences: They didn't go to London last year.

The only exception:

- 1. She was seven last week. They were happy yesterday.
 - 2. Was she seven last week? Were they happy yesterday?
 - 3. She wasn't seven last week. They weren't happy yesterday.

Emphatic past simple

- 1. We use it to emphasise an action or situation in the past, particularly to emphasise that it actually happened, or that it's different to what someone else thinks.
- 2. Emphatic past simple = subject +did+ bare infinitive.
 - 3. I know you don't believe me but I did see a ghost.

BUT:

We cannot use Emphatic Past Simple with the verb "To be"!!!

Past Continuous is used for:

- 1. Actions or situations in the past which are interrupted or stopped by another action or situation;
- 2. Actions which were happening at a definite time in the past;
- 3. Two unfinished situations or events in progress at the same time.

Examples:

- 1. She was reading a book at 6 o'clock yesterday.
- 2. I was dong my homework when my phone rang.
- 3. They were reading a book while their father was repairing his car.

How to form?

- 1. Affirmative sentences: I (she, he, it) was eating.

 They (we, you) were eating.
- 2. Interrogative sentences: Was I (she, he, it) eating?
 Were they (we, you) eating?
- 3. Negative sentences: I (she, he, it) was not eating.
 They (we, you) were not eating.

BE CAREFUL!!!

Do not use Past Continuous for repeated or regular actions in the past. We do not say:

I was playing football every Saturday.

Say: I played football every Saturday.

Thank you for your attention!!!
