

PLACES OF INTEREST IN LONDON

Big Ben

*One of the most famous landmarks of London.
The name „Big Ben“ does not refer to the whole clocktower, but to the thirteen-tonne bell that strikes the hour.*

Big Ben is a part of The Houses of Parliament, also known as the Palace of Westminster. The building consists of The House of Commons, The House of Lords and Westminster Hall.

London Eye

*On the other side of the River Thames you can see the London Eye, sometimes called
the Millenium Wheel, the largest observation
wheel in the world.
It was opened on December 31, 1999.*

Westminster Abbey

Just next to the Palace of Westminster, this gothic church is the traditional place of coronation and burial site for English monarchs

Buckingham Palace

This is the official London residence of the British monarch.

In front of it stands a sculpture called the Victoria Memorial, a large statue of Queen Victoria.

Tower of London

Situated by the River Thames, it is the most famous fortress in the UK. It is a complex of buildings which have served as treasury, mint, palace, place of execution and prison.

The present cathedral dates from the 17th century, when it was rebuilt after the Great Fire of London, and was designed by Christopher Wren

*A square in central London, which commemorates
the Battle of Trafalgar in 1805.
Nelson's column is in the centre,
surrounded by fountains and four huge bronze lions.*

Tower Bridge

The Bridge, constructed in the 1890s, took its name from the nearby Tower of London. The road over the bridge can be raised to allow ships to pass through.

British museum

One of the world's largest and most important museums of human history and culture, home to over seven million objects from all continents.

Piccadilly circus

A famous traffic intersection renowned for its video display and neon signs as well as the Shaftesbury memorial fountain and the statue of the Angel of Christian Charity, often called „Eros“.

Thank you for attention!