

Sots survey on the November 2014

Do we still need literature?

In the social survey was attended by 17 people

The two greatest inventions in history: the printing press, which gave man books, and television, which pulled us away from them.

The presentation was prepared

9 A

The project plan :

Project goal : to tell and show the results of the survey ( at the Lyceum in November 2014 ) .

Forms of the project: To tell the audience, the show presentation and the show chart.

There are books that must be read, there are those who are best to swallow, and only a few should be chewed and digest

Statistics surveys:

The tech who said Yes. Popular answers.

About 70% respondents say that help to spend time

to read books:

About 15 % respondents say that improve and develop human

No

About 10 % respondents say that books do man clever

Abstained

About 5 % respondents say that books learn human

Statistics surveys:

The most popular answers

About 75,5 % respondents say that this A.S.Pushkin

About 9,3% respondents say that this L.N.Tolstoy
personally? 2 author

About 5,1 % respondents say that this N.V.Gogol

About 5 % respondent say that this M.U.Lermontov

About 3,1 respondent say that this W.Shakespeare

About 2 % respondent say that this J.london

Statistics surveys:

About 50 % respondents say that the more prefer a fiction

About 25% respondents say that the more prefer a thrillers

About 13 % respondents say that the more prefer a classic

About 12 % respondents say that the more prefer a romanticism

Statistics surveys:

How often do you read books?

About 90 % respondents say that read 2 times a week

About 5 % respondents say that read 1 times a month

About 3 % respondents say that read only on holidays

About 2 % respondents say that don't like read books

Statistics surveys:

Disappear if the books in the near future?

- No 50%
- Yes 50%

Statistics surveys:

Is it possible to live life without books?

The most popular answers

About 65% respondents say that without books man don't invite in life

About 35 % respondents say that the books is the soul of men without this don't live

Thank you for your attention !