

Main menu

Political system

The head of state

The Federal Assembly &
The President & courts

The Responsibilities of each branch

A bill of rights

The End

The ideal political system is the political system of Russia

- Our political system is democracy

The head of our state is the president

The ideal President

- should be:

honest, skillful,
reticent, sociable

sporty

- should not be:

emotional bossy cunning sly

The Federal Assembly & The President & The courts

- The Federal Assembly is the legislative branch of power. The President is involved in the work of the legislative and executive branches of power. The Supreme court and the Constitutional court of the Russian Federation are judicial branches of power.

The Responsibilities of each branch

- The Duma is responsible for passing laws. If the Duma doesn't agree with the president's suggestions 3 times running he can dissolve it.
- The Federal Assembly can pass laws over the President veto, by 2/3 majority.

The bill of rights

- Every citizen has the right to work, to live, education, health care, to food to express thoughts

the END

