

Child rights and protection

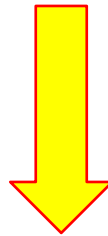

The 20-th of November – the Universal children's day

The concept of human rights

Human rights - rights that are necessary for a full life

HUMAN RIGHTS ARE GIVEN TO US FROM BIRTH

THE STATE CAN ONLY CONSOLIDATE AND ENSURE THEIR IMPLEMENTATION

THE UN CONVENTION ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD

Adopted by resolution 44/25 of the General Assembly of the UN on 20 November 1989.

The CONVENTION is a document that must be strictly obeyed by those who signed it.

- ❑ Children are more vulnerable than adults to the conditions of life.
- ❑ Children are more affected by the action or inaction of governments.
- ❑ Children are particularly vulnerable to exploitation and abuse.
- ❑ Children don't vote, have political and economic influence. Too often their voices are not heard.

This was the basis for the development of an instrument aimed at ensuring children's rights on the Ground.

THE UN CONVENTION
ON THE RIGHTS OF THE CHILD
