

Preliminary English Test

An exam consist of:

- ❖ Reading and Writing,
- ❖ Listening,
- ❖ Speaking.

Reading (5 tasks - 35 questions)

Contains

- ✓ tasks-choice from a variety of options proposed
- ✓ tasks on correlating text and the associated human
- ✓ task to choose true / false.

Writing (3 tasks 7 questions)

Contains

- ✓ a task to the compilation sentences identical with this,
- ✓ writing short notes or letters,
- ✓ writing a letter or story (optional).

Listening

Task 1	7 short conversations, each of which you must choose one of the three proposed images
Task 2	Monologue or interview and 6 questions to him with the choice of the correct answer from the three choices
Task 3	Monologue. You must fill in 6 passes in the text after listening
Task 4	Dialogue. You must define true or false each of these 6 offers after listening

Speaking

1. Answers to the questions of the examiner (mostly about themselves)

2. The examiner gives the candidate a picture and describes the situation.
Necessary in a conversation with the other candidate to come to the decision that it would be the best choice of action in this situation

3. The examiner gives a color photo, which the applicant must describe

4. Conversation both candidates on topic started in the task three (on photographs)

Certificate is recognized by several organizations as proof that confirms proficiency in English at a basic level

