Christmas in Great Britain

On the 25th of December there is the greatest holiday in England – Christmas or X-mas.

Christmas

Christmas is a religious holiday. On this day British people celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ. This holiday means the beginning of the new year and the new life.

Christmas symbols

Christmas Tree

A Christmas tree is a decorated tree, usually an evergreen conifer such as spruce, pine, or fir or an artificial tree of similar appearance, associated with the celebration of Christmas.

Wreath

A wreath is an assortment of flowers, leaves, fruits, twigs or various materials that is constructed to resemble a ring.

In English-speaking countries, wreaths are used typically as household ornaments, mainly as an Advent and Christmas decoration

Santa Claus

Santa Claus, also known as Saint Nicholas, - Father Christmas, or simply Santa, is a legendary figure of Western Christian culture who is said to bring gifts to the homes of well-behaved ("good" or "nice") children on Christmas Eve and the early morning hours of Christmas Day.

Christmas Stocking

Children hang Christmas stockings
on the beds or near the fireplace.

Candy Cane

A candy cane or peppermint stick is a cane-shaped stick candy often associated with Christmastide, as well as Saint Nicholas Day. It is traditionally white with red stripes and flavored with peppermint, but is also made in a variety of other flavors and colors.

Christmas Dinner

Christmas dinner is a meal traditionally eaten at Christmas. This meal can take place any time from the evening of Christmas Eve to the evening of Christmas Day itself. The meals are often particularly rich and substantial, in the tradition of the Christian feast day celebration, and form a significant part of gatherings held to celebrate Christmas
