Christopher Robin and his teddy, known by name Winnie, played there.

Each daily adventure in the forest gave Milne materials for his famous book "Winnie-the-Pooh", published in 1926.

After the book “Winnie-the-Pooh” A.A. Milne wrote other books “Now We Are Six” (1927) and “The House at Pooh Corner” (1928). They are very popular today as they were many years ago when they were written.

Any noise annoys an oyster
But a noisy oyster annoys an oyster more.

Two cartoon witches are depicted. The witch on the left has long blonde hair, wears a black pointed hat with a white star, and a green sweater with orange stars. She holds a large clock face with a red second hand pointing to 12 and a green minute hand pointing to 10. The witch on the right has long red hair, wears a black pointed hat with a white star, and a yellow sweater with blue and purple floral patterns. She holds a large clock face with a red second hand pointing to 12 and a green minute hand pointing to 10. The background is white with a blue and green gradient on the left side.

If two witches were watching two watches,
Which witch would watch which watch?

I wish to wish the wish you wish to wish,
but if you wish
the wish the witch wishes,
I won't wish the wish you wish to wish.

Twister

His tongue will be twisted
