

Principality Of Monaco

An aerial photograph of Monaco at sunset. The city's buildings are illuminated with warm lights, and the harbor is filled with numerous yachts. The sky is a mix of orange and blue, and the sea is visible in the distance.

The principality's mild climate, splendid scenery, and gambling facilities have made Monaco world famous as a tourist and recreation center and going to Monaco is like sneaking off into paradise.

Monaco is one of the smallest and most densely populated countries in the world. The average person will need only 56 minutes to go through the whole country. The country's name comes from the Greek "monoikos", "hermit". In the Principality widely known due to the casino in Monte Carlo, Diaghilev's Russian ballet and conducted here stage of the championship of Formula 1 "Monaco Grand Prix"

The St. Martin gardens (Jardin Saint Martin), in the Old town, located on the edge of a high cliff, offering stunning views of the azure sea.

At the foot of the city, not far from the coast, is the area of Japan in Monaco-Japanese garden (Jardin Japonais). In the best traditions of the Japanese garden combines three elements: stone, water and plants. Natural stones are matched in shape, color and size. Tea house, stone lamps and wooden gates made in Japan.

Oceanographic Museum of Monaco

Oceanographic Museum with an underground aquarium – a masterpiece of modern architecture. The structure is located almost on a cliff. Founded in 1910 by Prince Albert I. you can find a unique aquarium in which the water splashing out of a hundred seas. This is one of the few aquariums in the world, where there are corals (they do not survive in captivity).

The wax Museum of the princes of Monaco

The image shows the exterior of the Musée de Cires de Monaco. The building is a two-story structure with a light-colored facade. The entrance is a large, arched doorway with a wooden door. Above the doorway, the words "MUSEE DE CIRES" are inscribed in a semi-circle. Above that, the words "Historial des Princes de Monaco" are visible. The entrance is flanked by two potted evergreen trees. A red carpet leads into the museum. Several flags are visible, including the Monaco flag (red and white) and the European Union flag. To the right of the entrance, there is a display window with a red and white checkered pattern and a sign that says "MONACO".

The Museum reflects the history of episodes in the Grimaldi dynasty from the late XIII century to the present. The wax figures are life-size, many of them dressed in authentic costumes from different eras. 4 scenes are 40 characters, the costumes donated by the family dynasty.

A panoramic view of Monaco at night, showing the city built on a hillside overlooking the harbor. The harbor is filled with numerous yachts and sailboats. The city lights are illuminated, and the sky is dark. The text "Welcome to principality of Monaco" is overlaid in the center.

Welcome to principality of Monaco

Kingdom of Morocco

The name of the country originates from the name of Marrakech, which translated from Berber means "decorated".

Morocco is a country of amazing contrasts: sand hills of the Sahara desert and snow-capped mountains, Golden beaches and azure waters of the Mediterranean, silvery waterfalls, swift river in the mountain gorges, pine forests and orange groves, unwarranted cruelty and unforgettable hospitality

Marrakech is the third largest and beautiful city in the heart of Morocco, in the Eastern tradition, very crowded, noisy, attracting tourists with memories of bygone luxury. Many of the attractions of Marrakech are the objects protected by UNESCO.

Djemmaa El-Fna square (Djemmaa El Fna) is the soul of Marrakech, the main directions of which — cafe du France and the building of the mosque, which is the starting point for all city tours. Unforgettable atmosphere has become a magnet for millions of tourists from around the world, visitors to Morocco.

The Koutoubia mosque is the largest African up to twenty thousand people. The oldest of 77-m high minaret of the Koutoubia mosque, as if hovering in the sky, is for all tourists landmark as it is visible from anywhere in Marrakech. Non Muslims cannot enter mosques is prohibited. But you can see her outside, walking through the garden, stroll on the walking trails — favorite places for an evening stroll.

The Menara gardens — a magnificent public Park of Marrakech, giving a pleasant coolness on a hot Moroccan day. They are surrounded by a clay wall and stretched nearly one hundred acres. There are mainly olive trees, palm trees, orange and other fruit trees, the age of some of about three hundred years.

The ancient city of Marrakech, without a doubt, is the heart and soul of Moroccan culture, as well as the most colorful and memorable place in the country.

Welcome to Kingdom of Morocco!