

Amazing Christmas Facts

The Romans celebrated Saturnalia in honor of the god Saturn.

It was supposed to be the period of chaos between the old and the new year when the normal rules of society could be ignored. People drank a lot, went wild and gave presents to each other.

Saturnalia was adopted by the Roman Christians and became Christmas, celebrated on the 25th of December.

*The name
'Santa Claus' comes from the Dutch Sinter Klaus, short for Sinter Nikolaus or Saint Nicolas.*

According to a survey, 7 out of 10 British dogs get Christmas gifts from their loving owners.

Scientists say that Christmas trees are edible. The needles are a good source of vitamin C

In the USA,
Christmas trees
are now called
'Holiday trees'

The Christmas tree originated in Germany.
It was usually decorated with apples.

Christmas day lasts 172,800 seconds. Santa Claus would need to travel at 2,058 kilometres per second to reach
all the places in the world during that time.

About 2 million
tones of Christmas presents are given at Christmas

The well known image of Santa Claus was invented
by Coca-Cola.

The Spanish and the Portuguese introduced the Christmas tree to Latin America, but unfortunately there are no fir trees there, so what do you think they decorate?

The Christmas cactus of course!

*In 1995, in Canada, Santa
Claus was given his own postcode -*

An internet site for Santa Claus was set up in 1997
