

Welcome

to

Russia

- Is the greatest state of the world (17 075 400 km²)
- The population for 2011 makes 142 914 136 persons.

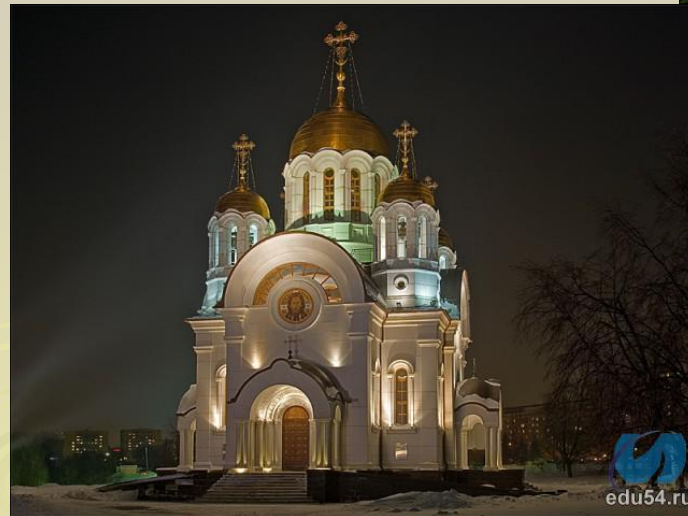

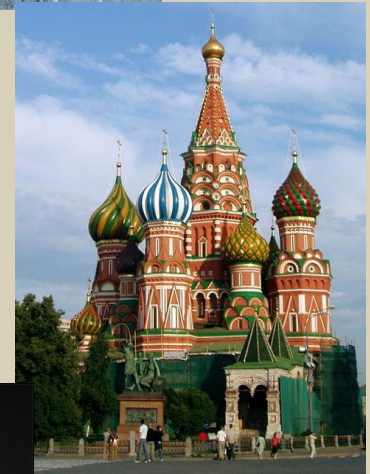

- Russia — democratic federal prezidentsko-parliamentary
- Capital — the city of Moscow.

- The head of the state is the President of Russia selected national voting for a period of 4 years.
- At present the president is-Medvedev Dmitry Anatolievich.
- It possesses a number of the major powers: supervises over foreign policy, is the Supreme commander in chief Armed forces, appoints with the consent of the State Duma of the Chairman of the government, the decision on Government resignation makes. Under the offer of the Chairman of the government appoints to posts of vice-presidents of the government and federal ministers, and also dismisses them. The president heads Security council, appoints and dismisses command of Armed forces

- Russia is the secular state. The constitution guarantees «a freedom of worship, a freedom of worship, including the right to profess individually or together with others any religion or not to profess any, freely to choose, have and extend religious and other belief and to operate according to them» .

- Russia from the XX-th century middle has assigned to itself a rank of sports power. Since the Olympic games in Helsinki of 1952 and till today, Soviet, and later the Russian sportsmen never fell below the third place in general midallion offset among all countries of the world on summer Olympic games.
- In 1980 Moscow accepted XXII summer Olympic games, and Sochi will accept XXII winter Olympic games in 2014. In Russia following sports are most popular: football, hockey, figure skating, biathlon, boxing, basketball, volleyball, handball, tennis, rhythmic gymnastics, synchronous swimming, chess weightlifting.

- The people of Russia speak more than 100 languages and the dialects belonging to Indo-European, Altay and Ural language families, Caucasian and to language groups. Among the most widespread spoken languages are allocated Russian, Ukrainian, Belarus, Armenian, Osset and German (an Indo-European language family), Tatar, Chuvash and Bashkir (the Altay language family), Udmurt, Mari (the Ural language family), Chechen, Avarian (the nahsko-Dagestan languages), kabardino-Circassian (abhazo-adygskaja a language family).
- In 2009 of UNESCO recognized 136 languages in territory of Russia being under the threat of disappearance.

- National bylinas, fairy tales, characteristic for the people occupying Russia, have informed to us popular wisdom from depths of centuries.
- short Russian national song, usually comic maintenance, transferred usually orally. The chastooshka is a folklore element.
- Nested doll — Russian wooden toy in the form of a painted hollow doll in which there are dolls of the smaller size similar to it. The traditional list of a nested doll often represents country girls in traditional dresses. Recently the possible range of a list is limited by nothing by that, beginning from fantastic characters and finishing the Soviet leaders. This symbol of Russia was born not during ancient times as it is considered to be, and only in 18 in Abramtzevo .Today the nested doll is one of the most popular souvenirs for foreign tourists in Russia.

- As a part of flora of Russia is about 24700 kinds of plants, from which about 11400 kinds — vascular, 9000 — seaweed, 3000 — lichens and 159 — ferns. Are richest with kinds of plants caucasus (6000) and the Far East (1900—2000), is the poorest — the Arctic islands of Siberia (100—150).
 - Woods occupy over 40 % of territory. In territory of Russia there is a fifth part of all woods of the world and half of world coniferous woods. The fauna is various — here live both polar bears, and walruses, both tigers, and leopards, etc.
 - In Russia 35 national parks and 84 reserves are located. Unique in the country the natural park which is in city boundaries — Omska.
 - Russia is washed by 12 seas of the World ocean
 - The largest lake — Caspian sea. From lakes in traditional sense the largest on the area are Baikal (31 722 km²), Ladoga (17 872 km²), Onega (9 693 km²) and Tajmyr (4 560 km²), and on volume Baikal (23 516 km³), Ladoga (838 km³), Onega (292 km³) and Hantajsky (82 km³), thus about 96 % of all stocks of lake waters are concentrated only in eight largest lakes, from them of 95,2 % are necessary only to one Baikal.
- Russia is located in Northern hemisphere, in the north of continent Eurasia. It is washed by waters of Silent and Arctic oceans, and also Baltic, Black, Azov by the seas of Atlantic ocean and Caspian sea, thus possessing the most extended coastal line (37 653 km). The Ural mountains and Kumo-Manychskaja a hollow divide Russia into the European and Asian parts, last includes the North Caucasus, Siberia and the Far East Russia.

Sights Russia

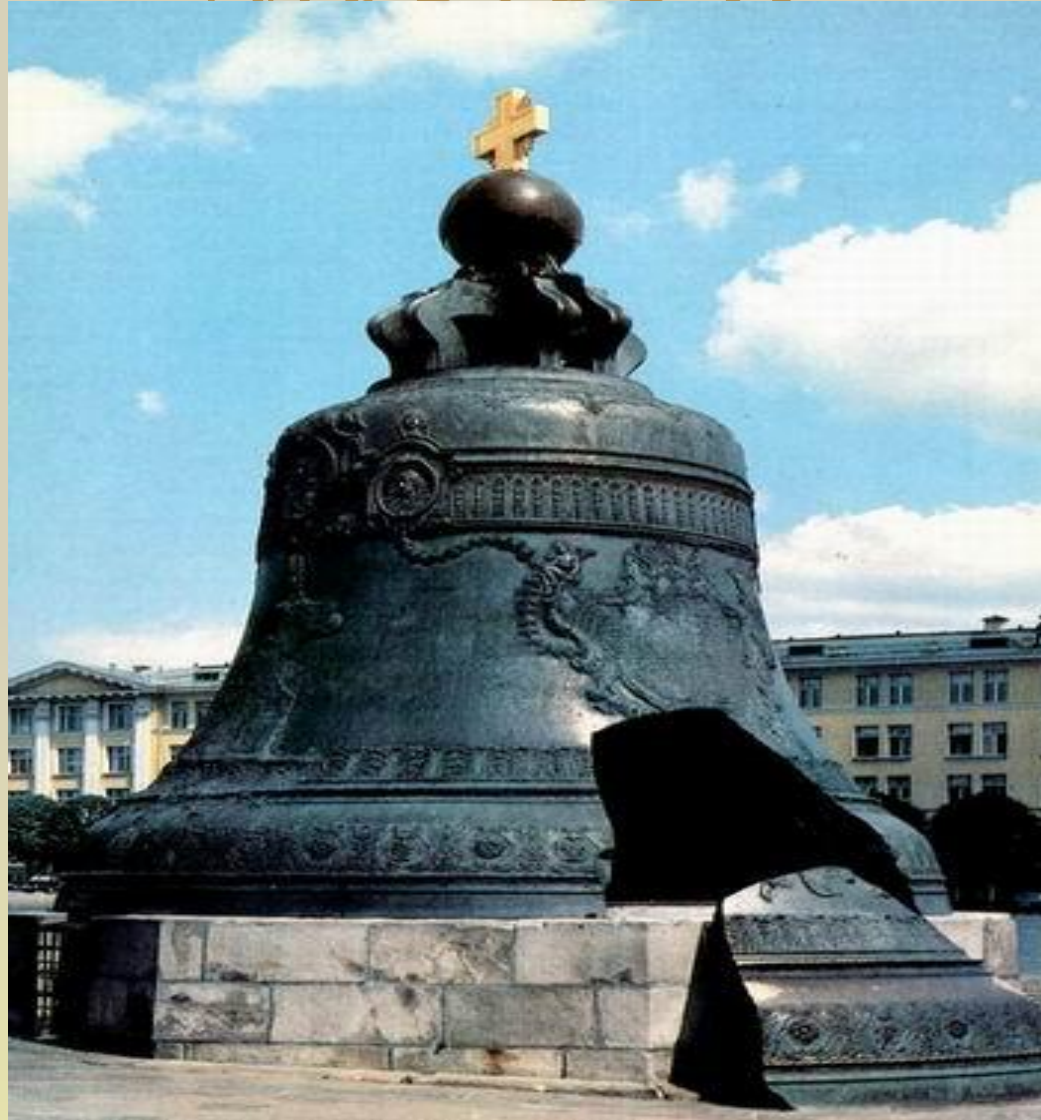

The Hermitage in Sankt-Peterburge

...ensemble "Peterhof" on the bank of a southern

«The tsar a bell» in Moscow

Monument «the tsar of a dozen» in Moscow

The sculpture the native land calls
mother" in Volgograd

*Monument Petr to the first "the copper horseman" in
D. I. + D. + . P .*

Monument a «Millenium Russia» in Novgorod

Monument Pushkin in M

Kremlin in Moscow

Mausoleum Lenina in Moscow

Cruiser an «Aurora» in Sankt-Peterburg

