

A colorful illustration of Saint Nicholas standing in a snowy village at night. He is an elderly man with a grey beard and a halo, wearing a yellow and red checkered robe with red crosses. He carries a large, round, orange sack over his shoulder. In the background, there are snow-covered houses with lit windows, a church with a steeple, and a winding path. The sky is dark blue with white stars.

Saint Nickolas Day!!!

Saint Nicolas Day
celebrate on nineteenth of December.

This festival is a time of great fan in Ukraine.

On this day, people
would invite guests
and sleighs would be
ridden around the village to see the snow was slippery.

This was the holiday
for young children, for they would receive
gifts from St. Nickolas, the patron saint of
children.

“St. Nickolas” was often accompanied by “angels” and might have quizzed the children on their catechism.

+ BONUS

Zhenia Demchenko

