

Shibaev Alexander

Alexander I. Shibayev
(9 September 1990 Yaroslavl)

Russian table tennis player , silver medalist of the 2011 European Championship in doubles , two-time bronze medalist of the European Championship (in team and doubles) , three-time champion of Russia (in singles , mixed doubles and team) .

International Master of Sports

Alexander I. Shibayev (9 September 1990

Yaroslavl - Russian table tennis player , silver medalist of the 2011 European Championship in doubles , two-time bronze medalist of the European Championship (in team and doubles) , three-time champion of Russia (in singles , mixed doubles and team) . International Master of Sports

Biography

Alexander Shibayev started practicing table tennis at age seven. First coach - Valentin Fedoseyev. At the beginning of his professional career he played for Yaroslavl table tennis club "Tempo", is currently the club's player of table tennis "UMMC" from Upper Pyshma Sverdlovsk region. He played for Yaroslavl, Sverdlovsk region and Tatarstan.

At present (2016 data) trains in Eslöv in Sweden under the leadership of coach Peter Sartz (Peter Sartz), coached the national teams of Sweden and Denmark, who previously worked with Michael Mace

Style of play
Playing in the style of ~~striker~~, a right-hander , is using the European grip. It uses a racket with a base Petr Korbel FL (Butterfly) and overlays Tenergy 05 (Butterfly) 2.1 mm thick
on both sides .

Playing in the style of striker , a right-hander ,
is using the European grip . It uses a racket
with a base Petr Korbel FL (Butterfly) and overlays Tenergy 05 (Butterfly) 2.1 mm thick
on both sides

Thanks to successful performance in major competitions in 2011, he was among the 28 best players of the world and received the right to perform at the Olympic Games 2012 in London. At the Olympic Games in London, Alexander Shibayev eliminated in the third round of the competition, losing with a score of 3: 4 Croatian athlete Andrey Ghachine .

In April 2016 the European Olympic qualification Shibayev Alexander won the right to participate in the Summer Olympics in 2016, however, losing in the third round with a score of 3: 4 Timo Boll, was eliminated from the competition.

The highest position in the ITTF world ranking was 21 th place in June 2016. The first racket of Russia on January 2014

